Management change in Electrolux Professional Group

Carolina Tendorf, General Counsel, has decided to leave the company to pursue other interests. She will stay until a successor has been found.

Carolina Tendorf has led the legal function of Electrolux Professional Group since its listing and spin-off in 2020. A recruitment process to find her successor has been initiated.

“I would like to express my sincere thanks to Carolina Tendorf for her strong, committed and valuable contribution to Electrolux Professional Group. She has played an instrumental role in developing the company into what it is today, including the spin-off and listing as a separate company five years ago. I would like to express our sincere appreciation for her dedication and excellent work. I am also pleased that she has decided to stay until a successor has been found,” says Alberto Zanata, President and CEO of Electrolux Professional Group.
