Coor extends IFM agreement with ABB and ABB Robotics

Coor has extended its agreement with ABB and ABB Robotics regarding the delivery of a range of FM services to ABB and ABB Robotics in Sweden. The new contract spans three years with an option to extend it for a further two. The annual contract value amounts to approximately SEK 150 million for Sweden, Norway, Estonia and Lithuania.

ABB has renewed its agreement with Coor regarding the coordination, delivery and development of a wide range of FM services for ABB's and ABB Robotics' offices and production facilities in Sweden, Norway, Estonia and Lithuania. The services include property services, security services, cleaning, workplace services, as well as coffee machines and fruit.

For ABB, the aim has been to maintain a cost-effective, high-quality service delivery.

- Coor has been providing IFM services to ABB since 2017, and we are delighted that ABB has renewed its confidence in us; we look forward to taking our partnership to the next level, says Kajsa Voltaire, Business Area President for IFM at Coor in Sweden.

ABB is a global leader in electrification and automation technology, enabling a more sustainable and resource-efficient future. By combining its expertise in engineering and digitalisation, ABB helps industries maintain consistently high performance whilst becoming more efficient, productive and sustainable, and enhancing their competitiveness.
