Second patch of “Operation Medic Bag” out now with new features and improvements

“Operation Medic Bag” is a focused effort to respond to community expectations and improve PAYDAY 3. The initiative covers a range of sought-after features and improvements to gameplay, stability, matchmaking, content and enhanced features. The second patch of “Operation Medic Bag” includes new adaptive armor, the new Adrenaline feature, a new skill line and several fixes. Read the patch notes here.

“This marks our second update on the Operation Medic Bag journey, with many more to come. Our focus remains on making continuous improvements at a steady pace, aiming to gradually address the game's most pressing issues and rebuild trust and engagement within our community.” says Andreas Häll-Penninger, lead producer PAYDAY 3.

Updates under the “Operation Medic Bag” umbrella are scheduled to increase in cadence, releasing smaller updates more frequently over time. This will allow players to see more consistent progress to the game and the community to give feedback on each update.

Other improvements

- New Medic bag feature; “Adrenaline” which functions as an extra but temporary health pool.
- New Fortitude skill line, making use of the new “Adrenaline” feature it both buffs the player and vastly increases survivability.
- An increase in Skill points together with skill and weapon balancing as part of ongoing updates.
