Independent Auditor's Report

To the Shareholders of AB VILKYŠKIŲ PIENINĖ

Report on the Separate Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying separate financial statements of AB VILKYŠKIŲ PIENINĖ ("the Company"), which comprise the separate statement of financial position as at 31 December 2015, the separate statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the year then ended, and notes, comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, as set out on pages 5-54.

Management's Responsibility for the Separate Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these separate financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of separate financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these separate financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the separate financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the separate financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the separate financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the separate financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the separate financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

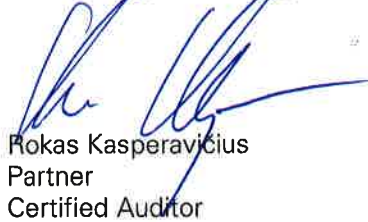

Opinion

In our opinion, the separate financial statements give a true and fair view of the unconsolidated financial position of the Company as at 31 December 2015, and of its unconsolidated financial performance and its unconsolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

Furthermore, we have read the annual report of AB VILKYŠKIŲ PIENINĖ for the year ended 31 December 2015, set out on pages 55-96 of the separate financial statements, and have not identified any material inconsistencies between the separate financial information included in the annual report and the separate financial statements of the Company as at and for the year ended 31 December 2015.

Basis for preparation of financial statements

Statement of compliance

These separate financial statements (financial statements or separate financial statements) of AB VILKYŠKIŲ PIENINĖ have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Union.

The Company also prepares consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) as adopted by the European Union.

The management of the Company is authorized to issue the separate financial statements of the Company after they are approved by the general shareholders meeting, which must be convened by 30 April 2016 as prescribed by the Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania.

Basis of measurement

Financial statements are prepared on the historical cost basis except for:

- derivative financial instruments which are measured at fair value;
- buildings that are a part of property, plant and equipment are measured at a restated value less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Functional and presentation currency

These separate financial statements are presented in Euro (EUR). As of 1 January 2015, EUR is the official currency of the Republic of Lithuania and the Company's functional currency. All financial information presented in EUR has been rounded to the nearest thousand.

The financial data for 2014, denominated in Litas, was restated in EUR applying the official exchange rate containing six notional figures – 3.4528 Litas for 1 EUR.

Foreign currency transactions

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into EUR at the foreign currency exchange rate ruling at the date of the transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at the statement of financial position date are translated into EUR at the exchange rate ruling at that date. All transactions made in foreign currencies have been translated as prescribed by the Law on Accounting applying the exchange rate valid as at 31 December 2015.

Foreign currency exchange differences arising on translation are recognized in the income statement. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost or fair value in a foreign currency are translated into EUR using the exchange rate at the date of the transaction.

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices

The accounting policies, set out below, have been consistently applied by the Company to all the periods presented in these financial statements, except for those, which have changed due to the IFRS amendments and the new IFRS, as presented in the section below "Effect on financial statements of application of new standards and amendments and new interpretations to standards"

Property, plant and equipment

Items of property, plant and equipment, including assets under finance lease terms, but excluding buildings, are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. The cost includes costs incurred when acquiring the asset. The cost of self-constructed assets includes the cost of materials, direct labor costs and an appropriate proportion of production overheads.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Property, plant and equipment (cont'd)

When parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted as separate items of property, plant and equipment.

The Company recognizes in the carrying amount of an item of property, plant and equipment the cost of replacing part of such an item when that cost is incurred if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied with the item will flow to the Company and the costs of the item can be measured reliably. All other costs are recognized in the income statement as an expense as incurred.

Buildings are recognized at restated amounts, being the estimated fair value at the date of the revaluation less any subsequent accumulated depreciation and subsequent accumulated impairment losses. Revaluations are made with sufficient regularity such that the carrying amount does not differ materially from that which is determined using fair value at the statement of financial position date. The fair value of the buildings is determined by appraisals undertaken by certified independent appraisers. The depreciation of buildings is calculated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful economic lives of assets. The revaluation reserve for buildings is being reduced in conformity with depreciation of certain assets.

In the case of revaluation, when the estimated fair value of an asset is higher than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of this asset is increased to the amount of fair value and such increase is recorded through other comprehensive income into the revaluation reserve of property, plant and equipment under the equity. Depreciation is calculated on the amount, which is equal to the acquisition cost/revaluated amount net of residual value of the asset.

In the event of revaluation, when the estimated fair value of an asset is lower than its carrying amount, the latter is immediately reduced to the fair value and the impairment is deducted from the previous revaluation increases recognized in the revaluation reserve, to the extent it does not exceed the amount of such increases. Depreciation is calculated from the depreciable amount, which is equal to the acquisition value less the residual value.

The cost of replacing part of an item of property or equipment is recognized in the carrying amount of the item if it is probable that the future economic benefits embodied within the part will flow to the Company and its cost can be measured reliably. The costs of the day-to-day servicing of property and equipment are recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Depreciation is recognized in profit and loss on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of each part of an item of property, plant and equipment, since this most closely reflects the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset.

|-------------------------|-------------|
| Buildings | 10-40 years |
| Machinery and equipment | 5-15 years |
| Other assets | 3-7 years |

The useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed annually to ensure that the period of depreciation and other estimates are consistent with the expected pattern of economic benefits from items in property, plant and equipment.

Investment property

Investment property is the Company's property, held to earn rentals. Such property is stated at a restated value under the category of buildings.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Intangible assets

Intangible assets with a finite useful life that are acquired by the company are stated at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment losses. Amortization is charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of 3 years.

Investment in subsidiaries

Investment in subsidiaries is measured at acquisition cost less impairment losses, if any.

Inventories

Inventories include finished goods, production in progress as well as goods and materials.

Initially inventories are stated at acquisition cost, which includes direct costs of wages, materials and processing during production period. Production costs also include systematically allocated fixed and variable production overheads.

At the end of the reporting period inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value, less impairment losses. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs of completion and selling expenses. Write down to net realizable value is stated under cost of sales.

Cost of inventories is based on the FIFO principle.

Non-derivative financial assets and liabilities

Non-derivative financial assets are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss, held-to-maturity investments; loans and receivables, and available-for-sale financial assets, as appropriate. All purchases and sales of financial assets are recognized on the trade date. Non-derivative financial instruments are recognized initially at fair value, plus, (except for instruments at fair value through profit or loss), directly attributable transaction costs.

Financial assets or financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss are recorded in the statement of financial position at fair value. Related gains or losses on revaluation are charged directly to the income statement. Interest income and expense, and dividends on such investments are recognized as interest income and dividend income or interest expenses, respectively.

Held-to-maturity investments

Non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity are classified as held-to-maturity when the Parent Company or subsidiaries have the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity. Investments that are intended to be held-to-maturity are subsequently measured at amortized cost using an effective interest method. The effective interest rate method is the method used for estimation of amortized cost of financial assets and allocation of interest income or costs over a relevant period. An effective interest rate is the rate allowing to accurately discount the future payments in cash over the expected validity period of the financial liability or over a shorter period, where appropriate. Gains and losses are recognized in the income statement when the investments are derecognized or impaired.

Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. Such assets are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method less any impairment losses. Gains and losses are recognized in income when the loans and receivables are derecognized or impaired.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Financial assets and liabilities (cont'd)

Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are those non-derivative financial assets that are designated as available-for-sale or are not classified in any of the three preceding categories. After initial recognition available-for-sale financial assets are measured at fair value. Change in the fair value is recognized in the statement of comprehensive income until the investment is derecognized at which time the cumulative gain or loss previously reported in equity is included in the income statement.

Fair value

The fair value of investments that are actively traded in organized financial markets is determined by reference to quoted market bid prices at the close of business on the reporting date. For investments where there is no active market, fair value is determined using valuation techniques. Such techniques include using recent arm's length market transactions; reference to the current market value of another instrument, which is substantially the same; discounted cash flow analysis or other valuation models.

When measuring the fair value of an asset or a liability, the Company uses market observable data as far as possible. Fair values are categorized within different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices);
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability might be categorized within different levels of the fair value hierarchy, the fair value measurement is categorized in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

The Company recognizes transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

Fair values have been determined for measurement and/or disclosure purposes based on the following methods. Where applicable, further information about the assumptions made in determining fair values is disclosed in the notes specific to that asset or liability.

As at 31 December 2015, the fair values of assets and liabilities stated in the statement of financial position do not significantly differ from their carrying amounts.

Interest-bearing borrowings

Interest-bearing borrowings are recognized initially at fair value, adding attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are stated at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Financial assets and liabilities (cont'd)

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs on loans used for acquisition of qualifying property, plant and equipment are recognized as part of the asset acquisition cost and until the usage of the asset are accordingly added to the cost of property, plant and equipment.

Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are recognized initially at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivatives are recognized initially at fair value: attributable transaction costs are recognized in profit and loss when incurred. Subsequently to initial recognition, derivatives are measured at fair value, and changes therein are accounted for as described below.

Hedging from cash flow risk

Changes in fair value of the derivatives that are designated as hedging against cash flow risks are recognized directly in equity through other comprehensive income to the extent this hedging is effective. When the hedging is not effective, the fair value changes are recognized in profit or loss.

When the hedged asset is not financial, the amount accumulated under the equity is included in the carrying amount of the asset at the moment of recognition and accounting. In other cases, the amount accumulated in equity is reclassified to profit or loss in the same period that the hedged item affects profit or loss. If the hedging instrument no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, expires or is sold, terminated or exercised, or the designation is revoked, then hedge accounting is discontinued prospectively. If the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, then the balance in equity is reclassified to profit or loss.

Other non-trading derivatives

When a derivative financial instrument is not designated in a qualifying hedge relationship, all changes in its fair value are recognized in profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets

A financial asset (or, where applicable a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is derecognized when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Company or subsidiaries has transferred their rights to receive cash flows from the asset and either (a) has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

Where the Company has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset and has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the asset is recognized to the extent of the Company's continuing involvement in the asset.

Financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognized when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash includes cash on hand and cash with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash with original maturities of three months or less and that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value.

For the purposes of the cash flow statement, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, and other short-term highly liquid investments.

Impairment

Financial assets

Financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss are reviewed for impairment at each reporting date. A financial asset is impaired if objective evidence indicates that a loss event has occurred after the initial recognition of the asset, and that the loss event had a negative effect on the estimated future cash flows of that asset that can be estimated reliably.

For financial assets carried at amortized cost, whenever it is probable that the Company will not collect all amounts due according to the contractual terms of loans or receivables, an impairment or bad debt loss is recognized in the income statement.

In relation to trade and other receivables, impairment loss is recognized when there is objective evidence (such as the probability of insolvency or significant financial difficulties of the debtor) that the Company will not be able to collect all of the amounts due under the original terms of the invoice. Impaired debts are derecognized when they are assessed as uncollectible.

Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of the Company's receivables carried at amortized cost is calculated as the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the original effective interest rate (i.e., the effective interest rate computed at initial recognition of these financial assets). Receivables with a short duration are not discounted.

Reversal of impairment losses

An impairment loss in respect of receivables carried at amortized cost is reversed if due to subsequent events the recoverable amount of receivables objectively increases.

An impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, if no impairment loss has been recognized.

Non-financial assets

Non-financial assets, except for inventories and deferred tax assets, are reviewed for possible indicators of impairment at each statement of financial position date or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate possible impairment. If any such indication exists, then the assets recoverable amount is estimated.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets that cannot be tested individually are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the "cash-generating unit, or CGU").

Notes to the financial statements

Whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, an impairment loss is recognized in the income statement. Impairment losses recognized in respect of CGUs are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the units, and then to reduce the carrying amounts of the other assets in the unit (group of units) on a pro rata basis.

Reversal of impairment losses recognized in prior years is recorded when there is an indication that the impairment losses recognized for the asset no longer exist or have decreased. The reversal is accounted in the same caption of the income statement as the impairment loss. An impairment loss in respect of goodwill is not reversed.

Provisions

A provision is recognized in the statement of financial position when the company has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of a past event, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation. If the effect is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and, where appropriate, the risks specific to the obligation.

Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognized as a current expense in the period when employees render the services. These include salaries and wages, social security contributions, bonuses, paid holidays and other benefits. There are no long-term employee benefits.

Finance and operating leases

At the inception of arrangement the Company determines whether an arrangement is attributable to finance or operating lease.

The Company as a lessee

Finance leases, which transfer to the Company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the inception of the lease at the fair value of the leased property or, if lower, at the present value of the minimum lease payments. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability to achieve a constant period rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability. Finance charges are reflected in profit or loss.

Operating lease payments are recognized as expenses in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Capitalized assets are depreciated over their useful lifetime or during the lease period, if there is no certainty that the Group will acquire ownership at the end of the lease period.

Acquisition of own shares

When acquiring own shares, the amount paid, including the directly attributable costs, is recognized as a change in equity. The purchased own shares are shown in separate item under equity as a negative amount.

Dividends

Dividends are recognized as a liability for the period in which they are declared.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Government grants

Grants that compensate the Company for expenses incurred are recognized as revenue in the income statement in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred.

Grants that compensate the Company for the cost of an asset are amortized over the same period as the asset for which the grant has been received. Amortization costs are included in production cost or administrative costs as well as in depreciation of property, plant and equipment for which the grant has been received.

Revenue

Revenue from sales of goods is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable, net of returns and allowances, trade discounts and volume rebates. Revenue is recognized in the income statement when the significant risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred to the buyer, recovery of the consideration is probable, the associated costs and possible return of goods can be estimated reliably, and there is no continuing management involvement with the goods. Transfer of risks and rewards vary depending on the individual terms of the contract of sale.

Cost of sales

Cost of production comprises direct and indirect costs including depreciation and wages incurred in order to obtain the turnover for the year.

Costs are recognized based on accrual and matching principles.

Distribution and administrative expenses

Selling and administrative expenses comprise expenses of transportation, administrative staff, management, office expenses, etc. including depreciation and amortization.

Operating costs are recognized based on accrual principle.

Other operating income and costs

Other operating income and charges comprise gain or loss from disposal of non-current assets, gain or loss from intercompany transactions as well as other income and costs not related to the primary activity.

Financial income and expenses

Financial income and expenses comprise interest receivable and payable, realized and unrealized exchange gains and losses regarding debtors and creditors denominated in foreign currencies.

Interest income is recognized in the income statement using effective interest method. The interest expense component of finance lease payments is recognized in the income statement using the effective interest rate method.

Income tax

Income tax on the profit or loss for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax is recognized in the income statement except to the extent that it relates to items recognized through other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case it is recognized in other comprehensive income in equity.

Notes to the financial statements

Current tax is the expected tax payable on the taxable income for the period, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Standard profit tax rate applied to the companies in the Republic of Lithuania is 15%. Tax losses can be carried forward for an indefinite period if the Company does not change its activities due to which these losses incurred, except for the losses incurred as a result of disposal of securities and/or derivative financial instruments. The amendment to the Law on Corporate Income Tax, article 30, part 4 prescribes that when calculating the income tax for 2014 and subsequent taxable periods, the amount of tax losses to be carried forward shall not be larger than 70% of income for the taxable period, which is calculated by deducting non-taxable income, allowed and restricted deductions, except for losses of the previous taxable periods.

The procedure of carrying forward the loss incurred as a result of disposal of securities and/or derivative financial instruments has not changed; therefore, it can be carried forward for five consecutive years and only be used to reduce the taxable income earned from the transactions of the same nature.

Deferred tax is provided for temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is not calculated on temporary differences arising on initial recognition of assets and liabilities, if these differences do not affect the tax provided in the financial statements nor the taxable profit. The amount of deferred tax provided is based on the expected manner of realization or settlement of the carrying amount of assets and liabilities, using the enacted tax rates known at the statement of financial position date.

Deferred tax assets have been recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available, against which the asset can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

Earnings per share

The Company provides information on basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share. Basic earnings per share amounts are calculated by dividing net profit for the year attributable to ordinary equity holders of the Company by the weighted number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share amounts are calculated by adjusting the net profit attributable to ordinary equity holders and the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year by all potential ordinary shares. During the financial year, the Company did not issue any potential ordinary shares.

Segments

An operating segment is a component of the Company that engages in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses, including revenues and expenses that relate to transactions with any of the Company's other components. All operating segments' operating results are reviewed regularly by the chief executive body of the Company to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance, and for which discrete financial information is available.

Effect on financial statements of application of new standards and amendments and new interpretations to standards

Except for the changes below, the Company has consistently applied the accounting policies set out below to all periods presented in these financial statements.

The Company has adopted the following new standards and amendments to standards, including any consequential amendments to other standards, with a date of initial application of 1 January 2015.

The following new standards and amendments with effective date of 1 January 2015 did not have any impact on these financial statements:

- Amendments to IAS 19 – Defined Benefit Plans: Employee Contributions
- IFRIC 21 guidance on a levy imposed by government
- Annual Improvements to IFRSs

New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

A number of new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations are effective for annual periods beginning after 1 January 2016, and have not been applied in preparing these consolidated financial statements. Those, which may be relevant to the Group, are set out below. The Group does not plan to adopt these standards early.

(i) IFRS 11: Accounting for Acquisitions of Interests in Joint Operations (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016)

These Amendments require business combination accounting to be applied to acquisitions of interests in a joint operation that constitutes a business. Business combination accounting also applies to the acquisition of additional interests in a joint operation while the joint operator retains joint control.

The additional interest acquired will be measured at fair value. The previously held interests in the joint operation will not be remeasured.

It is expected that the Amendments, will not have material impact on the Company's financial statements because the Company is not a party in any joint operation.

(ii) IAS 1 – Presentation of Financial Statements (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016)

The Amendments to include the five, narrow-focus improvements to the disclosure requirements contained in the standard.

It is expected that the Amendments will not have a material impact on presentation of the Company's financial statements.

(iii) IAS 16 – Property, Plant and Equipment and IAS 38 – Intangible Assets (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016)

The amendments explicitly state that revenue-based methods of depreciation cannot be used for property, plant and equipment. In addition, the amendments introduce a rebuttable presumption that the use of revenue-based amortization methods for intangible assets is inappropriate. This presumption can be overcome only when revenue and the consumption of the economic benefits of the intangible asset are 'highly correlated', or when the intangible asset is expressed as a measure of revenue.

It is expected that the Amendments, when initially applied, will not have material impact on the Company's financial statements, as the Company does not apply revenue-based methods of amortization/depreciation.

New standards and interpretations not yet adopted (cont'd)

(iv) IAS 16 – Property, Plant and Equipment and IAS 41 – Agriculture (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016)

These amendments result in bearer plants being in the scope of IAS 16 Property, Plant and Equipment, instead of IAS 41 Agriculture, to reflect the fact that their operation is similar to that of manufacturing.

The Company does not expect that the amendments, when initially applied, will have material impact on the financial statements as the Company has no bearer plants.

(v) IAS 19 – Defined Benefit Plans: Employee Contributions (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 February 2015)

The amendments are relevant only to defined benefit plans that involve contributions from employees or third parties meeting certain criteria. When these criteria are met, a company is permitted (but not required) to recognize them as a reduction of the service cost in the period in which the related service is rendered.

The Company does not expect the amendment to have any impact on the financial statements since it does not have any defined benefit plans that involve contributions from employees or third parties.

(vi) IAS 27 – Separate Financial Statements (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2016)

The amendments allow an entity to use the equity method in its separate financial statements to account for investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures.

The Entity does not expect that the amendments, when initially applied, will have a material impact on the financial statements as the Entity intends to continue to carry its investments in subsidiaries, associates or joint ventures [at cost/in accordance with IAS 39].

(vii) Annual Improvements to IFRSs

The improvements introduce ten amendments to ten standards and consequential amendments to other standards and interpretations. These amendments are applicable to annual periods beginning on or after either 1 February 2015 or 1 January 2016, with earlier adoption permitted.

None of these amendments is expected to have a significant impact on the financial statements of the Company.

Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the financial statements. They are disclosed unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote.

Contingent assets are not recognized in the financial statements but disclosed when an inflow or economic benefits are probable.

Subsequent events

Subsequent events that provide additional information about the Group's position at the statement of financial position date (adjusting events) are reflected in the financial statements. Subsequent events that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes when material.

Summary of significant accounting policies (cont'd)

Use of judgments and estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS as adopted by the EU, requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgments about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Company makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by their nature, seldom equal to the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

Fair value of derivatives

The fair value of interest rate swaps is based on broker quotes. Those quotes are tested for reasonableness by discounting estimated future cash flows based on the terms and maturity of each contract and using market interest rates for a similar instrument at the measurement date. Fair values reflect the credit risk of the instrument and include adjustments to take account of the credit risk of the Company and counterparty when appropriate.

Determination of an effective hedge

On initial designation of the derivative as a hedging instrument, the Group formally documents the relationship between the hedging instrument and hedged item, including the risk management objectives and strategy in undertaking the hedge transaction and the hedged risk, together with the methods that will be used to assess the effectiveness of the hedging relationship. The Group makes an assessment, both at the inception of the hedge relationship as well as on an ongoing basis, of whether the hedging instruments are expected to be highly effective in offsetting the changes in the fair value of cash flows of the respective hedged items attributable to the hedged risk, and whether the actual results of each hedge are within a range of 80% - 125%.

Determining whether an arrangement contains a lease

At inception of an arrangement the Group determines whether such an arrangement is or contains a lease. This will be the case if the following two criteria are met:

- 1) The fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of the specific asset or assets and,
- 2) The arrangement contains a right to use the asset(s).

At inception or on reassessment of the arrangement, the Group separates payments and other consideration required by such an arrangement into those for the lease and those for other elements on the basis of their relative fair values. If the Company concludes for a finance lease that is impracticable to separate the payments reliably, then an asset and a liability are recognized at an amount equal to the fair value of the underlying asset. Subsequently the liability is reduced as payments are made and an imputed finance cost on the liability is recognized using the effective interest rate.

Impairment losses on property, plant and equipment

The carrying amounts of the Company's property, plant and equipment are reviewed at each reporting date to determine whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exists, then the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. For the purpose of impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets or groups of assets (the cash-generating unit).

The recoverable amount is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs to sell. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessment of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is recognized if the carrying amount of an asset or its cash-generating unit exceeds its estimated recoverable value.

Valuation of buildings

Information about assumptions and estimation uncertainties related to valuation of buildings is included in Note 10 "Property, plant and equipment".

Impairment losses on receivables

The Company reviews receivables to assess impairment at least on a quarterly basis. In determining whether an impairment loss should be recorded in the income statement, the Company makes judgments as to whether there is any observable data indicating that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows from a portfolio of receivables before the decrease can be identified with an individual receivable in that portfolio. This evidence may include observable data indicating that there has been an adverse change in the payment status of debtors, national or local economic conditions that influence the receivables of the Company.

Impairment losses on receivables (cont'd)

The management evaluates probable cash flows from the debtors based on historical loss experience related to the debtors with a similar credit risk. Methodology and assumptions used for estimating both the amount and timing of future cash flows are reviewed regularly to reduce any differences between loss estimates and actual loss experience.

Useful lives for property, plant and equipment

Asset useful lives are assessed annually and changed when necessary to reflect current thinking on their remaining lives in light of technological change, prospective economic utilization and physical condition of the assets concerned.

Financial risk management

The Company is exposed to the following risks from its use of financial instruments:

- credit risk,
- liquidity risk,
- market risk,
- operational risk.

This note presents information about the Company's exposure to each of the above risks, the Company's objectives, policies and processes for measuring and managing risk.

The note 27 Financial Instruments Risk Management includes quantitative information about each type of risk listed above as well as information about capital management. Disclosures are provided in the financial statements.

Notes to the financial statements

Summary of significant accounting policies and practices (cont'd)

Financial risk management (cont'd)

Risk management framework

The Board of Directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. The Company's risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Company, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor risks and adherence to limits. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in market conditions and the Group's activities. The Company, through its training and management standards and procedures, aims to develop a disciplined and constructive control environment in which all employees understand their roles and obligations.

Credit risk

When carrying out trade activities, the Company sells its products and services with a deferred payment term. Therefore, there might be a risk that the clients will not settle for the Company's goods and services. In order to reduce the credit risk to a minimum, the Company manages it by applying the credit limit principles, determining credit amounts and type of pledge, such as:

- limit,
- insurance,
- guarantees,
- credit insurance

The Company has also insured in 2015 the foreign customers by credit insurance in the company Eurler Hermes. For each client making settlement not in cash, the credit risk is assessed on an individual basis. Trade receivables are regularly reviewed by the Finance Department. In the event of overdue accounts receivable, the sales are stopped and the debt recovery procedures are started.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due, under both normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking damage to the Company's reputation.

The Company's policy is to maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents or have available funding through an adequate amount of committed credit facilities to meet its commitments at a given date in accordance with its strategic plans.

The Company's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility. The Company's activities generate sufficient amount of cash, therefore the main managements' responsibility is to monitor that the liquidity ratio of the Company is satisfactory.

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as foreign exchange rates, interest rates and equity prices will affect the Company's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimizing the return.

The Company manages foreign exchange risk by minimizing the net exposure to open foreign currency position. Further exposure to foreign exchange risk is disclosed in Note 27 Financial instruments and risk management. The Company's income and operating cash flows are in general independent of changes in market interest rates. The Company does not have significant interest-bearing assets. The Company use derivative instruments to hedge the interest rate risk (refer to Note 23).

Operational risk

Operational risk is the risk of direct or indirect loss arising from a wide variety of causes associated with the Company's processes, personnel, technology and infrastructure, and from external factors other than credit, market and liquidity risks such as those arising from legal and regulatory requirements and generally accepted standards of corporate behavior. Operational risks arise from all of the Company's operations.

The Company's objective is to manage operational risk to balance the avoidance of financial losses and damage to the Company's reputation with overall cost effectiveness and to avoid control procedures that restrict initiative and creativity.

The primary responsibility for the development and implementation of controls to address operational risk is assigned to senior management.

This responsibility is supported by the development of standards for the management of operational risk in the following areas:

- requirements for appropriate segregation of duties, including the independent authorization of transactions
- requirements for the reconciliation and monitoring of transactions
- compliance with regulatory and other legal requirements
- documentation of controls and procedures
- requirements for the periodic assessment of operational risks faced, and the adequacy of controls and procedures to address the risks identified
- requirements for the reporting of operational losses and proposed remedial action
- development of contingency plans
- training and professional development
- ethical and business standards
- risk mitigation, including insurance where this is effective.

1 Segment reporting

The Company has several reportable segments, as prescribed below.

Reportable segments are different product groups, which are managed separately because they require different technology and marketing strategies. For each of the product groups, the General Director reviews internal management reports on at least monthly basis.

The following summary describes the products in each of the Company's reportable segments:

- Cheese and cheese products. Includes cheese and cheese products produced by the Company;
- Other products. Includes other products (except cheese) produced by the Company;
- Other dairy products. Includes other dairy products acquired for resale.

Information regarding the results of each reportable segment is included below. Performance is measured based on segment gross profit, as included in the internal management reports that are reviewed by the General Director. Segment gross profit is used to measure performance, as management believes that such information is the most relevant in evaluating the results.

Segments results for the year 2015 are as follows:

| Thousand EUR | Cheese and cheese products produced by the Company | Other products | Other dairy products acquired for resale | Total |
|---------------|--|----------------|--|---------|
| Sales | 32,419 | 35,193 | 29,792 | 97,404 |
| Cost of sales | -33,065 | -31,791 | -28,896 | -93,752 |
| Gross profit | -646 | 3,402 | 896 | 3,652 |

Segments results for the year 2014 are as follows:

| Thousand EUR | Cheese and cheese products produced by the Company | Other products | Other dairy products acquired for resale | Total |
|---------------|--|----------------|--|----------|
| Sales | 46,359 | 48,068 | 31,870 | 126,297 |
| Cost of sales | -43,952 | -44,690 | -30,704 | -119,346 |
| Gross profit | 2,407 | 3,378 | 1,166 | 6,951 |

Management's opinion is that it is not reasonable to allocate general and administrative costs, finance income and costs, assets and liabilities to separate reportable segments.

The Company does not have any clients, for whom sales during the year exceeded 10% of the total sales.

Leased property, plant and equipment

The Company has acquired transport vehicles by way of finance lease. The carrying amount of the leased assets amounted to 304 thousand EUR as at 31 December 2015 (as at 31 December 2014: 799 thousand EUR). The leasing liabilities are secured by pledging the leased assets (note 19).

Revaluation

Buildings are recognized at revalued amounts, less accumulated depreciation and impairment loss.

In December 2014, the Company carried out an external evaluation of buildings. The results are stated in the financial statements.

The fair value of the buildings is attributed to level 3 according to the fair value hierarchy. The valuation method used by an independent valuator is the comparative value and replacement method and their combination.

The net value of the revaluation reserve as at 31 December 2015 amounts to 2,560 thousand EUR (at 31 December 2014: 2,729 thousand EUR).

If the buildings were carried at cost model, the carrying amount recognized as at 31 December 2015 would be 4,276 thousand EUR (restated value – 7,173 thousand EUR) (at 31 December 2014: 3,967 thousand EUR and the restated value – 6,798 thousand EUR).

The category of land and buildings includes certain not movable assets, which are leased to a subsidiary. The carrying amount of these assets amounts to 2,132 thousand EUR as at 31 December 2015 (at 31 December 2014: 1,976 thousand EUR). Depreciation of the assets is provided on a straight-line basis over the useful lifetime of 40 years.

In December 2015, the recoverable amount of the investment in AB Modest, as a cash-generating unit, was reviewed by calculating the value in use. For estimation of the value in use, the calculated future cash flows were discounted to their present value applying an industry weighted average cost of capital rate, which was equal to 8.64%. The main assumptions used for calculation are as follows:

- Future cash flows are calculated based on historical experience and the 5-year business plan. Cash flows expected over the remaining useful life of the machinery and equipment were calculated by extrapolating the cash flow for the fifth year with the expected 5 percent growth rate.
- For an increase of revenues and improvement of performance results, the Company is planning to increase sales not only of usual assortment of cheese, but also of the new product – whey; to increase production and sales of blue cheese using the new technological equipment, to find target markets for these products; to improve operation of the logistics warehouse; to review workload of the production employees.
- The management of the Group expects that the prices for raw milk will not significantly differ from the prices in 2015.

The calculated recoverable amount revealed that the investment is not impaired as at 31 December 2015; therefore, no impairment has been recorded.

18 Capital and reserves

As of 1 January 2015, Euro is an official currency in Lithuania used for settlement. The Company has restated the nominal value of the shares in accordance with the Lithuanian Law on Introduction of Euro.

On 9 June 2015, a new edition of the Company's Articles of Association was registered with the Companies Register of the Republic of Lithuania, where the nominal value of one share amounting to 0.29 EUR and the authorized capital of 3,463,470 EUR were determined and confirmed.

Authorized capital of the Company as at 1 January 2015 and 31 December 2015 comprised 11,943,000 ordinary shares. All the shares are fully paid.

According to the Law on Companies, holders of ordinary shares have at the shareholders meeting one voting right for one share and the right to dividends, which are declared from time to time, and to participate in capital on a winding up.

Share premium

Share premium is the difference between issue price and nominal value of the shares.

Legal reserve

Following the legislation, annual allocation to the legal reserve should amount to at least 5% of the net profit until the reserve makes up 10% of the share capital. The reserve can be used only to cover the retained losses. As at 31 December 2015, the legal reserve of the Company amounted to 346 thousand EUR (at 31 December 2014: 346 thousand EUR)

Revaluation reserve

Revaluation reserve is related to revaluation of buildings and is stated net of deferred tax liability. The reserve is decreased annually for the depreciation in respect to revalued buildings and disposal of revalued assets. The decrease is recognized directly in equity. When depreciating the revalued buildings, a transfer is made from the revaluation reserve to retained earnings. The amount for transfer is determined as a difference between depreciation, calculated from the restated value, and depreciation, calculated from the initial cost of the buildings.

18 Capital and reserves (cont'd)

The revaluation reserve can be used for an increase of authorized capital.

Hedging reserve

As at 31 December 2015, the hedging reserve comprises the effective part of the fair value of the derivative financial instrument in relation to hedging against interest rate fluctuations.

Reserve for acquiring own shares

In 2011, a reserve was established for acquiring own shares which amounted to 1,671 thousand EUR

The extraordinary shareholders meeting, dated 24 April 2015, decided that the Company may acquire up to 10 % of own shares.

As at the end of 2015, the reserve for acquiring own shares amounted to 2,508 thousand EUR (2014: 2,421 thousand EUR).

According to the Lithuanian legislation, the reserve will be retained for as long as the Company performs acquisition of own shares.

The Company did not acquire any own shares in 2015 and 2014.

| Deferred tax (asset) / liabilities | -1,306 | -533 | 1,694 | 1,555 | 388 | 1,022 |

Tax losses can be carried forward for an indefinite period, except for the losses incurred as a result of disposal of securities and/or derivative financial instruments. Such carrying forward is lost if the Company changes its activities due to which these losses were incurred, except for cases, when activities are terminated due to reasons which do not depend on the Company itself. The amendment to the Law on Corporate Income Tax, article 30, part 4 prescribes that when calculating the income tax for 2014 and subsequent taxable periods, the amount of tax losses to be carried forward shall not be larger than 70% of income for the taxable period.

A decrease in the deferred tax liability of 634 thousand EUR was recognized in the income statement.

| | 364 | 484 |

Derivatives are stated at fair value. As at 31 December 2015, the Company had three interest rate swap transactions with the bank for the loans amounting to 1,830 thousand EUR, 3,900 thousand EUR and 2,317 thousand EUR. The loans were subject to variable interest rates related to 3 months and 6 months EURIBOR+ margin. The Company encounters expected volatility of cash flows related to forecasted interest payments, 3 months and 6 months EURIBOR (guiding interest rate). Due to this, the Company entered into swap transactions with the bank where fixed interest on loans has been determined:

- The Company pays fixed interest on the loan of 1,830 thousand EUR and receives a variable interest rate equal to 3 months EURIBOR.
- The Company pays fixed interest on the loan of 3,900 thousand EUR and receives a variable interest rate equal to 6 months EURIBOR.
- The Company pays fixed interest on the loan of 2,317 thousand EUR and receives a variable interest rate of 3 months EURIBOR.

The above hedging instruments were evaluated as being effective.

The liquidity risk related to derivative financial instruments is disclosed in note 27.

As at 31 December 2015, a significant credit risk concentration is related to four clients, the receivable from whom makes 43% of all trade receivables.

Impairment losses

The Company establishes an allowance for impairment that represents its estimate of incurred losses in respect of trade and other receivables. This allowance for impairment includes only specific loss, related to individually significant trade and other receivables.

Ageing of trade and other receivables, prepayments and granted loans as at the reporting date can be specified as follows:

*an exchange rate for 2014 is presented based on the exchange rate of foreign currencies against Litass.

Sensitivity analysis

The functional currency of the Company is Euro (EUR). The Company faces foreign currency risk on purchases and sales that are denominated in currencies other than EUR. The main part of the Company's transactions in 2015 year are denominated in EUR; therefore, the Company did not expose to significant foreign currency exchange risk.

Interest rate risk

The Company's borrowings bear variable interest rates related to EURIBOR + margin.

The Company has entered into three interest rate swap agreement with a bank, by which it partially hedges its exposure to significant interest rate fluctuations. The fair value of the interest rate swap agreements, amounting to 364 thousand EUR (2014: 484 thousand EUR) is included in the item of derivative financial instruments.

At the reporting date, the interest rate profile of the Company's interest-bearing financial instruments was as follows:

| Thousand EUR | Carrying amount | |
|---|-----------------|------------|
| | 31-12-2015 | 31-12-2014 |
| Fixed rate financial instruments | | |
| AB Kelmės Pieninė loan | (753) | (753) |
| Loan to AB Pieno Logistika | 25 | 25 |
| Management loan | (250) | - |
| Non-current part of loans granted | 103 | 102 |
| Current part of loans granted | 6 | - |
| | (869) | (626) |

According to the agreement, the loan from AB Kelmės Pieninė bears a fixed interest rate. Therefore, changes in interest rates would not have influence on profit or loss at the reporting date.

Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable rate instruments

A change of 100 basis points in interest rates at the reporting date would have increased (decreased) equity and profit or loss by the amounts shown below. This analysis assumes that all other variables, in particular foreign currency rates, remain constant. The analysis is performed on the same basis for 2015.

Cash flow sensitivity analysis for variable rate instruments

Financial liabilities to banks and leasing companies are related to variable interest rate, therefore the carrying amount approximates the fair value.

Fair value hierarchy

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value, by valuation method. Data directly observed in the market reflect the market information gathered from external sources; the data not directly observed in the market reflect the market valuation by the Company's management. These two types of data determine the following fair value hierarchy:

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities. This level valuation is used for listed equity securities quoted on stock exchange (e.g. National Stock Exchange, Stock Exchange of London, Stock Exchange of Frankfurt).
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).

Notes to the financial statements27 Financial instruments and risk management (cont'd)*Fair value hierarchy (cont'd)

- Lever 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs). The Company values its assets and liabilities based on the fair value hierarchy principles prescribed in Level 3, where the expected discounted cash flow is determined. The effective discount rate is based on financing costs of investments into these companies.

Price risk

Prices of milk and dairy products vary depending on a situation in the market. The Group seeks to minimize an impact of such price fluctuations by diversifying production and striving for scale economy.

Capital management

The Board's policy is to maintain a strong capital base, in comparison with the borrowed means, to maintain investor, creditor and market confidence, to sustain future development of the business and to comply with externally imposed capital requirements. Capital includes equity attributable to equity holders.

The Board also seeks to maintain a balance between the higher returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the security afforded by a sound capital position.

Notes to the financial statements

27 Financial instruments and risk management (cont'd)

Capital management (cont'd)

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in the light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of its activities. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Company may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders or issue new shares. No changes were made in the objectives, policies or processes during the years ended 31 December 2015 and 31 December 2014.

The Company is obliged to keep its equity up to 50% of its share capital, as imposed by the Law on Companies of Republic of Lithuania.

28 Fair value of financial instruments

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction in the main (or most advantageous) market between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether the price is directly observed or determined using a valuation methodology

When determining the fair value of the financial instruments, the Group uses the following methods and assumptions:

Cash

Cash are funds that are valued at fair value.

Receivable amounts and term deposits

The fair value of trade and other receivables and term deposits is estimated at the present value of future cash flows, discounted at the market interest rate at the reporting date. Fair value of trade and other receivables of a shorter than six months duration with no stated interest rate is considered as approximately equal to their nominal value at initial recognition, and subsequently - at the carrying amount as the discounting effect is not significant. Fair value is determined for disclosure purposes.

Financial liabilities

Fair value, determined for disclosure purposes, is calculated based on the present value of the future principal and interest rate cash flows, discounted applying the market interest rate at the reporting date. The market interest rate on financial loan is determined based on the similar loan agreements. Fair value of financial liabilities with shorter duration and no determined interest rate is considered as approximately equal to their nominal value at initial recognition, and subsequently - at the carrying amount as the discounting effect is not significant.

The Company has no financial assets and financial liabilities accounted at fair value.

Financial instruments not stated at fair value

The main financial instruments of the Group, not carried at fair value, are trade and other receivables, term deposits, trade and other payables, non-current and current borrowings. The Group's management is of the opinion that the carrying amounts of these financial instruments approximate their fair values because the borrowing costs are related to an interbank lending interest rate EURIBOR, and other financial assets and liabilities are of short-term nature; therefore, their fair value variation is not significant.

Financial instruments stated at fair value

Financial instruments, stated at fair value as at 31 December 2015, include derivative financial instruments.

29 Subsequent events

On 17 April 2012, AB VILKYŠKIŲ PIENINĖ received an overdraft (1,868 thousand EUR) for working capital needs. Based on the amendment to the agreement, dated 23 April 2015, the overdraft limit was increased up to 2,870 thousand EUR to satisfy the working capital needs. The repayment term is 31 March 2016. As at the reporting date, the Company has an agreement with the Bank on extension of the repayment deadline until 31 March 2017. The agreement on extension was signed on 30 March 2016.

AB VILKYŠKIŲ PIENINĖ group is planning to implement the whey processing project in Tauragė, which will allow the Company to follow one of the main strategic directions, i.e., to achieve a more “deeper” processing of a product and to produce a higher value-added cart of products.

It is expected that realization of the project will strengthen a competitive position of the Company and will have significant influence on financial indicators.

Investments under the project will amount to 26 million EUR. It will be financed both, by the Company's and by borrowed funds.

According to plans, the project will be started in February 2016 and ended in the 1st quarter 2017.

There have been no significant events subsequent to the end of the reporting period that could materially affect the financial statements as at and for the year ended 31 December 2015.

AB Vilkyškių pieninė Annual Report for 2015

Letter of G. Bertašius, the General Director of AB Vilkyškių Pieninė, to the Investors

For Vilkyškių pieninė, 2015 was not an easy year. However, one can also find many good things in every period that abounds in challenges. Work is easy with the business cycle at its peak, but a downward cycle requires each team member to demonstrate his or her greatest creative abilities. Therefore I see the previous year as a period for revealing one's abilities.

Overproduction in the world dairy industry is a big challenge to us. We consider the new markets discovered over that year very important, especially with account of the domestic market situation. We have launched exports to South Korea and have a vision of how to gain a foothold with success in China and Arab countries.

Finding partners with long-term partnership opportunities and establishing contacts with them is a process that takes more than one year. Here I mean trust and business culture. It is for the purpose of starting close relationships that some seven years ago we decided to take an active part in the world's largest trade fairs. Each year, we present our products at fairs in Germany and France, and always attend the fair in Dubai. The geography of our events has expanded significantly this year as we took part in a fair in Peking, China. In the spring of 2016, we will attend an exposition in Shanghai. We are confident that this will enlarge the range of our partners even more.

There is something we can delight in on the domestic market as well. One of the happiest events of the year was the "Lithuanian Trademark of the Year" award to Vilkyškiai for the second time already. We received the first award in 2013. This is a very honourable award because as many as 34 trademarks were selected for the finals of the "Trademark of the Year" competition. Our ability to compete and win customer affection is a great motivation for us to continue our endeavours and justify this status with our results in the future.

Moreover, we have shown particular growth in the category of dessert products on the Lithuanian market over this year. At present, Vilkyškių pieninė has about 13 pct. of the glazed curd snacks market, while in the yogurt drink market we are almost in the leader position with more than 30 pct. of the market.

We have entered the year 2016 with ambitious plans and launched the implementation of a whey processing project in Tauragė. Investments in this project will amount to EUR 26 mln. and create new jobs. Implementation of this project will lead to the successful processing of dairies and their export even to the most distant countries.

Yours Sincerely,

Gintaras Bertašius

AB Vilkyškių pieninė produces a wide range of delicious dairy products made to original recipes, many of them winning accolades at various international trade fairs. We are proudly continuing the long-standing traditions of cheese production that originated in the picturesque valleys of western Lithuania. The lush flood-meadows of the Nemunas River inspire us to create and share what nature has so generously bestowed on us.

Our mission is to make gourmet dairy products for people to enjoy.

Our values:

Quality – we make high-quality dairy products and keep to the highest standards.

Innovation – we constantly strive to surprise our customers with new products by introducing original tastes and flavours. We keep investing in new technologies and are expanding our range of products. We find joy in the creative process and in sharing what we create — that is how new traditions are born.

Competence – in the hands of our dairy masters, ordinary dairy products turn into exceptional and original ones, setting the standard for the rest.

Honesty – we are open and trustworthy. We cherish the confidence and respect of our customers. Time-tested relationships with our partners and the professionalism of our people make the foundation of our business.

6. Issuer's Jurisdiction

In its operations, AB Vilkyškių pieninė follows the Lithuanian law, government resolutions and legal acts on companies, in particular the Lithuanian law on the securities market, as well as the Company's own Articles of Association.

7. Brief History of Issuer

Vilkyškių pieninė's legacy was revived in 1993, when a limited liability company called Vilkyškių pieninė was founded in the premises of an old dairy bearing the same name, built in 1934. The old dairy had stopped production in 1985, and all equipment had been dismantled. The new owners of the dairy privatised the buildings and brought new production equipment from Eastern Germany.

Initially, there was no other owners' equity apart from the privatized buildings, and bank loans were taken to provide the much needed turnover capital.

Key Events in Issuer's History

1993 – 1995: the dairy's water tower, boiler house and milk separation unit were renovated, and milk separation was launched. The cheese production department started making low-fat fermented cheese Peptatas. A butter production unit was also launched.

After these initial investments, the Company's growth gathered momentum. In early 1997, the cheese production department started making the Tilsit-type cheese, also launching production of Gouda-type fermented cheese a year later.

1997: EUR 0.8m was invested in the company, approximately EUR 0.1m of which was used for renovation works. A power substation was renovated, the Company was fully computerized, a boiler house by the Danish company BWE was built and a Dutch-made cold store with a capacity for 400 tonnes of products was installed.

1998: Almost EUR 0.4m was invested in vehicles, buildings, milk refrigerators, production equipment, a new cheese production unit and other major facilities.

1999- 2000: EUR 1.1m was invested in the construction of new production departments, vehicles and a major overhaul. EUR 2.5m was invested in a new TetraPakTebel cheese production facility. As a result, new fully computerised and automated cheese production line was installed, enabling the company to make EU-compliant products.

In the same year, the Company was issued with a license to export its products to the European Union.

2001: The Company acquired the Tauragė dairy facility of the Mažeikiai branch of AB Pieno žvaigždės. It was built in 1965 as a cheese production facility and was fully operational as such. Since 2007, it houses the head office of AB Modest, a subsidiary of AB Vilkyškių pieninė.

2003: The Company adopted the Navision accounting and business solution.

2003 – 2004: Additional investments were made into milk processing infrastructure, expanding the network of milk collection points and upgrading the fleet of milk tank trucks. In 2003, the refrigeration chamber was reconstructed, and renovation work was performed on the roof and buildings in 2004.

2004: An EU-compliant wastewater treatment facility, made by the Dutch company NewWaterTechnology, was installed, and investments were made into cheese packaging equipment in the same year.

2005: The boiler room of the Tauragė production facility was renovated, switching to a more ecological type of fuel.

2006: AB Vilkyškių pieninė was allocated EUR 1m from EU structural funds, which was used to upgrade production facilities and achieve full compliance with EU requirements.

The first phase of the project involved the upgrading of production technologies and was completed in 2006. As part of the modernisation, the Company's main dairy production facility was expanded significantly, adding two new cheese evaporators, three new cheese press machines and a buffer tank, as well as a new wash station for the cheese production line. In addition, the cheese brining shop and cheese loading processes were fully automated. After completing the modernization, the dairy's maximum cheese production capacity increased from 10,000 to 14,000 tonnes per year.

The second phase of implementation began in June 2007, when a new modern whey processing facility was launched. The total value of the whey processing facility was more than EUR 2.3m. The investment increased the Company's productivity, improved quality controls and reduced waste considerably. The Company had no whey processing until then. The new whey processing unit is almost completely automated and is manned by just two staff.

17 May 2006: A total of 9,353,000 common registered shares of AB Vilkyškių pieninė were listed on the Current List of the NASDAQ Vilnius exchange and then uprated to the blue-chip Official List on 1 January 2008.

In January 2006: The Issuer acquired an 80.25-percent stake in AB Modest. AB Vilkyškių pieninė holds 99.7 percent of the AB Modest stock. In 2009, the share capital of AB Modest was increased from EUR 37,190 up to EUR 178,730 through the issue of 488,710 new common registered shares. Meanwhile, the share capital of AB Vilkyškių pieninė was raised from EUR 178,730 to EUR 1,626,830 by a contribution in cash in 2010.

2008: AB Vilkyškių pieninė took over AB Kelmės pieninė by acquiring 99.09 percent of the company's stock. At present AB Vilkyškių pieninė controls 100 percent of the AB Kelmės pieninė stock. As a result of the acquisition, the AB Vilkyškių pieninė entered the market of fresh dairy products.

2009: EUR 9.5m in EU support was under an agreement with the Lithuanian National Paying Agency/ The support was awarded under the Lithuanian Rural Development Programme for 2007-2013, measure "Adding Value to Agricultural and Forestry Products", activity "Processing and Marketing of Agricultural Products".

2010: AB Vilkyškių pieninė set up new marketing and quality departments.

Investments were mainly made into refrigeration equipment, a cheese cutting and packaging line. The installation of the Equinox warehouse management system was also started.

2011: EUR 0.5m was invested into new cold store equipment, and another EUR 0.2m was invested to expand the existing wastewater treatment and equipment washing capacities.

2012: a new cheese production line was assembled (EUR 4.6m in value), increasing output by 30 percent, in addition to the launch of a EUR 2.7m packaging and plastic-coating line. This enabled the launch of the production of the Prussia brand of plastic-coated cheese, made using the latest technologies.

The 2007-2013 investment project "Improving the competitiveness of dairy processing" was completed. The project was worth EUR 9.5m, with EUR 1.9m coming from the EU structural funds. In 2010, the Company was allocated EUR 0.2m in EU support. Another EUR 1.6m was received in 2012.

2013: EUR 1m was invested in auxiliary facilities: a tank truck washer, a garage, a utility room, a mechanical workshop with utility premises, administrative offices, utility services, landings and a truck entry point. Another EUR 1.5m was invested to expand the whey processing unit's daily capacity to 600 tonnes. By the end of the year, the whey ultrafiltration project was also completed — it is a new technology that breaks whey proteins into their basic components, which results in new profitable products.

2014: AB Vilkyškių pieninė has launched a new cheese-slicing line, expanding its range of products.

AB Vilkyškių pieninė has completed a modernisation project (EUR 0,6m), acquiring new storage tanks for milk products and new cheese slicing equipment. The project drew EUR 0.12m in support from EU funds.

AB Vilkyškių pieninė has begun renovation of its cheese brining baths.

AB Vilkyškių pieninė also started a project to upgrade its cleaning equipment.

2015: AB Vilkyškių pieninė has signed a contract on connection to a gas distribution system with AB Lietuvos dujos. Gas supply to the dairy farm is expected since Q4 2016.

In late June, the National Commission for Energy Control and Prices has approved the project on investment into gas supply to Tauragė and authorised construction of a distribution pipeline to Tauragė. The distribution pipeline will run almost 6 km and connect the gas distribution station to AB Vilkyškių pieninė, situated in the town of Tauragė.

8. Main Investments During Reporting Period

With a view to improving treatment efficiency, in 2015 Vilkyškių pieninė AB completed the modernisation of its wastewater treatment plant that is compliant with the main national strategies and laws on wastewater management. The results of this project will have an impact on the water quality of the Jūra River in the first place, and will also contribute to the improvement of the water quality in the Nemunas, the Curonian Lagoon and the Baltic Sea.

Under the project, a new aerotank with accessories, a pumping station and a control system have been installed. The extended industrial wastewater treatment plant will allow reducing the post-treatment concentrations of pollutants in wastewater to the permissible thresholds. The installed second reservoir has not only improved the quality of wastewater treatment but it has also considerably reduced the risk of paralysing the operation of the plant completely as the second reservoir can continue working successfully in case the first one goes out of order. The new aerotank has enabled the distribution of industrial wastewater between the existing and the new facilities. To distribute the amount of wastewater and ensure the parameters of the treatment process, a control system has been set up that keeps track of the whole industrial wastewater treatment process. Following the implementation of this project, the concentrations of polluting substances in wastewater discharges will not exceed the maximum allowable levels of pollution defined in the Wastewater Management Regulation. Annual emissions from the company operations are expected to decline by 755 kg of total nitrogen and 60 kg of total phosphorus.

The equipment and its installation have cost Vilkyškių pieninė AB more than EUR 190 thousand, of which EUR 112 thousand were allocated for the project by the Lithuanian Environmental Investment Fund (LEIF).

9. Patents & Licenses

In 2000, the Company received a license to export its products to the European Union member states. The Company operates a HACCP quality management system.

In 2004, the Company was issued with a certificate of compliance for exports to the Russian market.

In 2013, AB Vilkyškių pieninė's management system was certified in accordance with the ISO 9001:2008 and ISO 22000:2005 standards. Following recertification, compliance under those standards has been extended for another three years.

The Company is wholly committed to the quality of its products, customer satisfaction and compliance with food safety regulations. AB Vilkyškių pieninė has obtained certification of its Quality Management and Food Safety systems under the international standards ISO 9001:2008 and ISO 22000:2005. These standards set a number of rules that ensure stable and safe production processes. The system covers every process from raw material supplies to customer satisfaction surveys, all performed in line with the organisation's policies.

The Quality Management and Food Safety systems are subject to continuous monitoring, review and improvements with a view to maintaining the high quality of the Company's products. The continual search for improvements and adherence to the top food safety standards has enabled the Company to start preparation for certification under ISO 22000:2005/FSSC 22000, a stricter version of the same standard. This certification scheme is part of the Global Food Safety Initiative (GFSI) and is equivalent to such internationally recognised standards as BRC and IFS.

At the last ISO 22000:2005 standard follow-up audit, Vilkyškių pieninė AB received a very favourable evaluation, stressing its good preparedness for the installation of the higher-level certification scheme.

The laboratory operating at the company Modest AB owned by Vilkyškių pieninė AB has been supplied with modern equipment FOOS FoodScan LAB Dairy this year. The equipment includes a near infrared analyser that helps to perform analysis of the required parameters more accurately and quickly, which allows improving product quality and yield and optimising costs. The modern laboratory equipment also offers new information management and analysis opportunities. This has enabled the laboratory of Vilkyškių pieninė AB to launch a project on document digitisation and transfer to the electronic environment this year. This project is very important for the activities of both the laboratory as a corporate structural unit and the whole group of Vilkyškių pieninė AB. The project has improved the procedure of product traceability and ensured quality control of laboratory test results.

For the purpose of entering Islamic markets and having our products appreciated by buyers, the production process of AB Vilkyškių Pieninė and AB Modest has been certified according to the requirements of the Halal rules. A Halal certificate was issued on 30 January 2015. Halal products are associated with product safety, healthiness, quality and ecology. Therefore, these products are frequently consumed by people of other confessions as well.

10. Human Resources

AB Vilkyškių pieninė's human resources policy is focused on promoting team welfare and professional advancement. In order to maintain its collaborative and highly motivated workforce, the Company implements regular trainings, occupational safety and health measures, as well as promoting a favourable work environment.

In early 2010, using EU financial support, AB Vilkyškių pieninė set up a day care service, which was completely free of charge for the parents. After public funding ended in 2013, AB Vilkyškių pieninė took over the financial burden and retains the free day care service for its employees. Since many employees travel to work from neighbouring towns and districts (Pagėgiai, Jurbarkas, Tauragė), the Company offers them free transport to work and back home.

In order to promote the team spirit, the Company has adopted a number of traditions, such as company anniversaries, excursions abroad, profession days and Christmas events. Staff take regular professional trainings and courses funded by the Company.

Occupational safety and health is another key priority for the Company. Every year, employees are offered free health checkups and flu vaccination. The Company plans to open a canteen and a company boarding house for employees visiting from other towns.

AB Vilkyškių pieninė took an active part in the public project “The creation and development of career development and monitoring models as part of the general education and professional training”. The aim of the project was to help students explore various occupations, professions and career paths, build early work experience, develop professional motivation and plan their careers – so they can find work in Lithuania rather than abroad. As part of the project, AB Vilkyškių pieninė holds monthly professional information and consultation meetings with students, in addition to organising field visits so young people can gain first-hand insights about work, careers and professions at the Company.

In summer 2015, AB Vilkyškių Pieninė carried out film project “Movies on your doorstep” and provided fellow-countrymen with the opportunity to watch quality non-commercial movies in three towns – Vilkyškiai, Tauragė and Kelmė. During the whole summer, residents Tauragė region had the opportunity to watch movies that won awards in international festivals and competitions. The repertoire included movies that the festival audience liked most of all.

We seek to be an active member of the community, to contribute to more active social life in our county and to strengthen mutual relationship and communication. There is a shortage of cultural and educational events in regions; therefore, we do our best to promote the dissemination of culture in our region, and first of all we take care of people living close to us.

11. Environmental Protection

Based on the European Parliament and Council IPPC Directive 2008/1/EC, AB Vilkyškių pieninė is attributable to the Annex I installations and is required to have an IPPC permit. The Company obtained its first IPPC permit from the Klaipėda Regional Environmental Protection Department on 10 August 2004, which was renewed on 28 December 2012. The Company has implemented the best available techniques (BAT), and its running costs and emissions are in line with the prescribed EU levels.

AB Vilkyškių pieninė has an environmental protection policy aimed at reducing the environmental impact of its operations, ensuring integrated pollution prevention measures, minimising the use of resources and waste generation, so that its operations do not affect air, water and soil. AB Vilkyškių pieninė performs regular environmental impact assessments.

Based on the existing legal requirements, programmes have been put in place to monitor the impact of the Company's water source and fuel storage on underground waters and to monitor air emissions and wastewaters.

Production wastewater is treated at the Company's own combined biomechanical treatment facility. In 2015, AB Vilkyškių pieninė treated 431017 m³ of wastewaters. The resulting sludge is given to local waste managers and is used as fertiliser in agriculture. Wastewater treatment efficacy has been estimated to be until 99 percent range.

In 2015 the Company finished modernisation of its wastewater treatment plant in order to boost treatment efficacy. This is being done in line with the main national strategies and legal acts on wastewater treatment: the Baltic Marine Environment Protection Strategy, the Lithuanian Law on Water Bodies, the National Long-Term Development Strategy and the National Sustainable Development Strategy.

| Total revenue | 83,679 | 95,218 | 118,536 | 126,297 | 97,404 |

In 2015, income from sales dropped by 23% year-on-year. Income from sales in the domestic market contracted by 14%, and exports went down by 30%.

The year 2015 has provided proof once again of dairy exports being an activity far beyond a stable and predictable one. In 2015, all dairy producers and processors down to the smallest ones felt price instability, market stagnation and constant competition. The end of milk quotas in the European Union and the Russian embargo were the key reasons that forced the company to review the existing market map and look for new opportunities. We have achieved success as we have launched new projects in Arab countries, South Korea and Southern Europe, and the brand Vilvi has become even more conspicuous on the shelves of retail chains in Poland.

Exports in 2015 accounted for 54% of the total sales of Vilkyškių pieninė AB, down by 5% from 2014. However, in terms of quantity, the product amount sold in foreign countries stayed the same and was only redistributed among other markets.

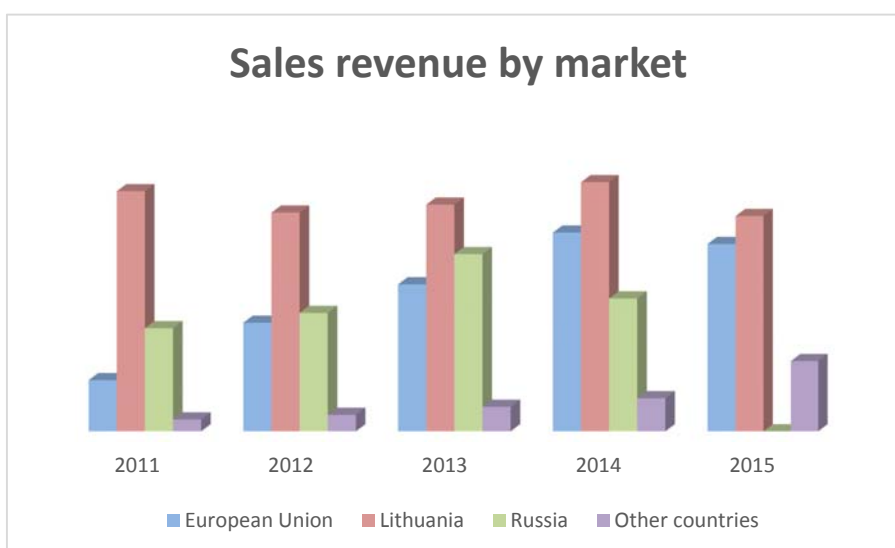

Sales in European Union states were the largest and increased from 33% to 40% as the volumes grew in Germany and Italy and an opportunity emerged for sales in Bulgaria and Spain. The increase from 5% to 15% in other countries was driven by the establishment of cooperation with South Korea, United Arab Emirates, Jordan and Libya.

Similarly to the previous years, the exports were dominated by cream, whey product and cheese sales.

In 2010, a new marketing department was set up within the Group to develop new products and implement branding and marketing strategies. The first priority was to strengthen its domestic presence, so investments were made into brand identity and unique value propositions to Lithuanian consumers. The Group achieved quick sales growth and acceptance on the local market by consistently expanding its range of fresh dairy products, high quality, original product flavours and unique packaging.

Vilkyškių pieninė's strategy to invest in innovative exclusive products has enabled the Company to deliver on its brand promise and continue surprising consumers with wider choices, new products, new taste sensations and new ways to enjoy dairy products, at the same time contributing to the brand's positions on the market .

The Company's branded and originally packaged products with great value propositions also have strong potential on export markets, which the Company is targeting with its Vilvi trademark.

14. Exhibitions and Awards

2011: Two Vilkyškių pieninė cheese products – Žalgiris and Legenda – were awarded at the ProdExpo international trade fair in Moscow, in the Russian Supermarket Choice category

2011: Hard cheese Žalgiris won Gold at World Food Moscow trade fair in the Product of the Year category.

2011: Prussia cheese was awarded Gold in the ProdExpo international exhibition in Moscow, in the Best Product category.

2012: Semi-hard Dutch cheese Maasdam won Gold at the ProdExpo international trade fair in Moscow in the Best Product category.

2013: Vilkyškių Original cheese claimed Gold in the Best Product category at the ProdExpo trade fair in Moscow.

2014: Vilkyškių pieninė named as Exporter of the Year 2014 in the Lithuanian Business Leaders 2014 contest.

2014: Vilkyškių pieninė's hard cheese Jubiliejinis 1934 was awarded the Gold Medal at the ProdExpo 2014 international exhibition in Moscow for innovative technology and packaging.

In 2015, Vilkyškių Pieninė introduced a unique new dairy additive, viz. crispy roasted buckwheat, and was recognised by World Dairy Innovation Awards, which took place in Amsterdam as part of the ninth Global Dairy Congress, as one the best in the category "Best dairy ingredient", i.e. it became one of the three finalists. The judging panel considered as many as 220 entries from 30 countries in 18 categories. In each category the winner and three finalists have been announced.

In October 2015, Vilkyškių pieninė AB took part in one of Europe's leading international food fairs, ANUGA, in Cologne, Germany. The spacious stand featured presentations of fresh products, cheese and ingredients (concentrate of whey proteins) used in the food industry.

In November 2015, the trade fair Food Ingredients Beijing 2015 took place in China. Our participation in this trade fair coincided with an important event of Lithuania and China signing a protocol that permits the export of dairy products. With account of the needs of this market, appropriate ingredients (concentrate of whey proteins) were presented at the fair.

In December 2015, with a view to finding new contacts for the whey products (concentrate and permeate of proteins) made by Vilkyškių pieninė AB, the company took part in the fair Food Ingredients Paris 2015 that brings together many representatives of food industry producers and wholesalers.

15. Risk Factors Associated with Issuer's Business

Key risks in the business of AB Vilkyškių pieninė:

The Company operates in the business of dairy processing (production of fermented cheese). The main factors that may pose business risks for the Company are possible changes on the raw material and product markets, competition, as well as changes in the legal, political, technological and social environment. These may affect – whether directly or indirectly – the Company's cash flows and results.

The Company specialises in cheese production, with most of its revenue coming from the sale of matured cheese and cheese products. Consequently, the Company's sales, profit and overall financial standing may be affected by negative changes in the cheese market demand or pricing (market risks). Meanwhile, price pressure may originate from competition on the international and local cheese markets.

The production of matured cheese is a lengthy process that may last between one and three months. As a result, the Company may be unable to respond quickly to market changes, which may tell upon its cash flows and bottom line.

The Company's credit risks are associated with accounts receivable. The risk of breach of contract by business partners is subject to certain control procedures. In 2014, for 2 years, the Company obtained credit insurance for its overseas customers with the insurer Euler Hermes. The risk of each client is assessed individually.

Credit risk associated with cash in banks is limited, as the Company works only with Lithuania's largest banks (mainly AB SEB Bankas). On 31 December 2015, the Company's debt-to-assets ratio was 0.56. The balance of outstanding loans on 31 December 2015 was EUR 15,650tho. All loans are denominated in euro and are being repaid under the established schedule, without any delays. The interest on all largest loans is linked to the EUR LIBOR rate. In 2011, interest rate swaps for the amount of EUR 8m were concluded for a period of five years.

16. Competition

AB Vilkyškių pieninės estimates that it has a 17-percent share of the Lithuanian market for cheese, i.e. it is in fourth place behind competitors AB Rokiškio sūris, AB Pieno žvaigždės and AB Žemaitijos pienas.

On foreign markets, AB Vilkyškių pieninė has to compete against local manufacturers, who have the advantage of lower transportation costs. However, AB Vilkyškių pieninė is trying to compensate for this disadvantage by offering a range of higher value-added cheese products.

17. Key Events After Fiscal Year-End

There have been no significant events after 31 December 2015.

18. Business Plans and Forecasts

In 2016, AB Vilkyškių pieninė will continue focusing its efforts on food safety and quality. We will continue expanding our range of products and searching for new sales markets, which will be targeted actively once identified. In Group further investments are planned into whey processing in order to make this line of business even more profitable.

Dividend and amount of dividend

1. The Law on Public Companies of the Republic of Lithuania stipulates that the dividend constitutes a share of profit payable to a shareholder in proportion to the face value of the stock held by the shareholder.
2. The Company's shareholders cannot vote to pay a dividend at a general meeting of shareholders, if
 - 1) the Company is insolvent
 - 2) the distributed result for the fiscal year ended is negative
 - 3) the Company's equity is smaller than the sum of its authorised capital and reserves, or in cases where it would become smaller following a dividend payout.
3. The Company's board shall submit to the General Meeting of Shareholders an amount of dividend based on the audited net profit result for the fiscal year ended.
4. If the Company has been profitable, the Company's board shall allocate a certain part of revenue for dividend as set out in Clause 2.6, reinvesting the rest of the revenue so as to increase the Company's capitalisation.
5. The Company shall pay dividend in cash.
6. The Company's board should establish the amount of dividend after taking into account the consolidated net profit of the Company for the year ended. The dividend amount must be not less than 25 percent of the consolidated net profit of the Company for the year ended, but not larger than the Company's annual consolidated net profit
7. The Company reserves the right to diverge from the criteria for the amount of dividend, provided it gives reasons for such divergence.

The public company Vilkyškių Pieninė, following Article 21 paragraph 3 of the Law on Securities of the Republic of Lithuania and item 20.5 of the Trading Rules of the NASDAQ Vilnius Stock Exchange, discloses its compliance with the Governance Code, approved by the VSE for the companies listed on the regulated market, and its specific provisions

| PRINCIPLES/ RECOMMENDATIONS | YES/NO /NOT APPLICABLE | COMMENTARY |
|---|------------------------|--|
| Principle I: Basic Provisions | | |
| The overriding objective of a company should be to operate in common interests of all the shareholders by optimizing over time shareholder value. | | |
| 1.1. A company should adopt and make public the company's development strategy and objectives by clearly declaring how the company intends to meet the interests of its shareholders and optimize shareholder value. | Yes | The Company constantly presents information related with the development strategy and with the optimization of shareholder value via the information system of the Stock Exchange, on its website (www.vilkyskiu.lt/investuotojams/). |
| 1.2. All management bodies of a company should act in furtherance of the declared strategic objectives in view of the need to optimize shareholder value. | Yes | All management bodies of the company act in furtherance of the declared strategic objectives. |
| 1.3. A company's supervisory and management bodies should act in close co-operation in order to attain maximum benefit for the company and its shareholders. | Yes | The company has set up the Management Board which acts for the interests of the company's shareholders, is responsible for the strategic management of the company, supervises the activity of the chief executive officer of the company, organizes meetings of the Management Board and cooperates with the management bodies of the company. Nomination, remuneration and audit committees have been set up in the Company. |
| 1.4. A company's supervisory and management bodies should ensure that the rights and interests of persons other than the company's shareholders (e.g. employees, creditors, suppliers, clients, local community), participating in or connected with the company's operation, are duly respected. | Yes | The company acts in compliance with the provisions that are set in this clause. |
| Principle II: The corporate governance framework | | |
| The corporate governance framework should ensure the strategic guidance of the company, the effective oversight of the company's management bodies, an appropriate balance and distribution of functions between the company's bodies, protection of the shareholders' interests. | | |
| 2.1. Besides obligatory bodies provided for in the Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania – a general shareholders' meeting and the chief executive officer, it is recommended that a company should set up both a collegial supervisory body and a collegial management body. The setting up of collegial bodies for supervision and management facilitates clear separation of management and supervisory functions in the company, accountability and control on the part of the chief executive officer, which, in its turn, facilitate a more efficient and transparent management process. | No | The bodies of the company are a general shareholders' meeting, Management Board and chief executive officer (Director General). The company does not set up a supervisory board as a collegial management body. The Management Board is responsible for the supervision of company's activity and management. |

| 2.2. A collegial management body is responsible for the strategic management of the company and performs other key functions of corporate governance. A collegial supervisory body is responsible for the effective supervision of the company's management bodies. | Yes | The functions that are indicated in this recommendation are implemented by the Management Board. |
| 2.3. Where a company chooses to form only one collegial body, it is recommended that it should be a supervisory body, i.e. the supervisory board. In such a case, the supervisory board is responsible for the effective monitoring of the functions performed by the company's chief executive officer. | No | The company does not follow this recommendation, where a company chooses to form only one collegial body, as Management Board is the one collegial body. The company does not follow the Recommendation 2.3 of the Governance Code – at present the only collegial body of the company is a management body, not a supervisory one. The management body of the company implements the supervisory functions as well. |
| 2.4. The collegial supervisory body to be elected by the general shareholders' meeting should be set up and should act in the manner defined in Principles III and IV. Where a company should decide not to set up a collegial supervisory body but rather a collegial management body, i.e. the board, Principles III and IV should apply to the board as long as that does not contradict the essence and purpose of this body. ¹ | Yes | Management Board elects and recalls the chief executive officer, sets his remuneration, other working conditions, approves Staff Regulations, induces him and imposes penalties. |
| 2.5. Company's management and supervisory bodies should comprise such number of board (executive directors) and supervisory (non-executive directors) board members that no individual or small group of individuals can dominate decision-making on the part of these bodies. ² | Yes | At present, in accordance with the Articles of Association, the Management Board of the company is composed of 6 members who are appointed for the period of four years. The number of members of the collegial body is sufficient to dominate decision-making. |
| 2.6. Non-executive directors or members of the supervisory board should be appointed for specified terms subject to individual re-election, at maximum intervals provided for in the Lithuanian legislation with a view to ensuring necessary development of professional experience and sufficiently frequent reconfirmation of their status. A possibility to remove them should also be stipulated however this procedure should not be easier than the removal procedure for an executive director or a member of the management board. | Yes | In accordance with the Articles of Association, the members of the Management Board are appointed for the period of four years without limiting the number of their terms of office. The Articles of Association provides the company with the possibility to withdraw the whole Management Board or any of its members. The withdrawal of a member of the Management Board should be based on the legislation. |
| 2.7. Chairman of the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting may be a person | No | The company does not follow the Recommendation 2.7 because the chairman of the Management Board is Director |

¹ Provisions of Principles III and IV are more applicable to those instances when the general shareholders' meeting elects the supervisory board, i.e. a body that is essentially formed to ensure oversight of the company's board and the chief executive officer and to represent the company's shareholders. However, in case the company does not form the supervisory board but rather the board, most of the recommendations set out in Principles III and IV become important and applicable to the board as well. Furthermore, it should be noted that certain recommendations, which are in their essence and nature applicable exclusively to the supervisory board (e.g. formation of committees), should not be applied to the board, as the competence and functions of these bodies according to the Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania (Official Gazette, 2003, No 123-5574) are different. For instance, item 3.1 of the Code concerning oversight of the management bodies applies to the extent it concerns the oversight of the chief executive officer of the company, but not of the board itself; item 4.1 of the Code concerning recommendations to the management bodies applies to the extent it relates to the provision of recommendations to the company's chief executive officer; item 4.4 of the Code concerning independence of the collegial body elected by the general meeting from the company's management bodies is applied to the extent it concerns independence from the chief executive officer.

² Definitions 'executive director' and 'non-executive director' are used in cases when a company has only one collegial body.

| whose current or past office constitutes no obstacle to conduct independent and impartial supervision. Where a company should decide not to set up a supervisory board but rather the board, it is recommended that the chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the company should be a different person. Former company's chief executive officer should not be immediately nominated as the chairman of the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting. When a company chooses to depart from these recommendations, it should furnish information on the measures it has taken to ensure impartiality of the supervision. | | General of the Company. The independence of supervision is guaranteed by other five members of the Management Board. |

Principle III: The order of the formation of a collegial body to be elected by a general shareholders' meeting

The order of the formation a collegial body to be elected by a general shareholders' meeting should ensure representation of minority shareholders, accountability of this body to the shareholders and objective monitoring of the company's operation and its management bodies.³

|--|------------|--|
| 3.1. The mechanism of the formation of a collegial body to be elected by a general shareholders' meeting (hereinafter in this Principle referred to as the 'collegial body') should ensure objective and fair monitoring of the company's management bodies as well as representation of minority shareholders. The company follows all provisions that are indicated in this recommendation, moreover, the company could additionally mention the document (such as the operating regulation of that body), if any, which determines the specific order of data exchange among the member of that collegial body. | Yes | While electing the collegial body of the company, the shareholders may take the cognizance of comprehensive information about the candidates early enough before the meeting of the shareholders and during it as well. |
| 3.2. Names and surnames of the candidates to become members of a collegial body, information about their education, qualification, professional background, positions taken and potential conflicts of interest should be disclosed early enough before the general shareholders' meeting so that the shareholders would have sufficient time to make an informed voting decision. All factors affecting the candidate's independence, the sample list of which is set out in Recommendation 3.7, should be also disclosed. The collegial body should also be informed on any subsequent changes in the provided information. The collegial body should, on yearly basis, collect data provided in this item on its members and disclose this in the company's annual report. The company could comment the implemented practice (for instance, prior to the announcement of company's annual report to the shareholders, each member of collegial body informs the collegial body about the in-service trainings, relevant to their service on the collegial body, which she/he has attended within the last accounting year). | Yes | The company accumulates and discloses the entire information about the members of collegial body, their professional education, qualification and conflicts of interest, following the order set out in these recommendations. |
| 3.3. Should a person be nominated for members of a collegial body, such nomination should be followed by the disclosure of information on candidate's particular competences relevant to his/her service on | Yes | During the meetings of the shareholders, curriculum vitae of candidates to become members of the Management Board are presented, which include such information as their education, professional background, etc. Information about the |

³ Attention should be drawn to the fact that in the situation where the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the board, it is natural that being a management body it should ensure oversight not of all management bodies of the company, but only of the single-person body of management, i.e. the company's chief executive officer. This note shall apply in respect of item 3.1 as well.

| the collegial body. In order shareholders and investors are able to ascertain whether member's competence is further relevant, the collegial body should, in its annual report, disclose the information on its composition and particular competences of individual members which are relevant to their service on the collegial body. | | composition of the Management Board is set out in the reports of the company. |
| 3.4. In order to maintain a proper balance in terms of the current qualifications possessed by its members, the collegial body should determine its desired composition with regard to the company's structure and activities, and have this periodically evaluated. The collegial body should ensure that it is composed of members who, as a whole, have the required diversity of knowledge, judgment and experience to complete their tasks properly. The members of the audit committee, collectively, should have a recent knowledge and relevant experience in the fields of finance, accounting and/or audit for the stock exchange listed companies. At least one of the members of the remuneration committee should have knowledge of and experience in the field of remuneration policy. | Yes | The company follows the recommendations set out in this clause. The members of the Management Board of the company have required diversity of knowledge, judgment and experience to complete their tasks properly. The members of Audit Committee have relevant experience and a recent knowledge in the fields of accounting and audit. |
| 3.5. All new members of the collegial body should be offered a tailored program focused on introducing a member with his/her duties, corporate organization and activities. The collegial body should conduct an annual review to identify fields where its members need to update their skills and knowledge. | Yes | Members of the Management Board take part in various refresher courses and seminars where they are provided with the information about the essential changes in legislation that regulates the activity of the company. Moreover, in case of necessity, the members of the Management Board either individually or during the meetings of the Management Board are also informed about the other changes, which have an impact on the activity of the company. |
| 3.6. In order to ensure that all material conflicts of interest related with a member of the collegial body are resolved properly, the collegial body should comprise a sufficient ⁴ number of independent ⁵ members. | No | The company does not follow the Recommendation 3.6 of the Governance Code as the company neither has defined the independence criteria of a member of the Management Board nor has discussed the content of "sufficiency" concept of independent members. |
| 3.7. A member of the collegial body should be considered to be independent only if he is free of any business, family or other relationship with the company, its controlling shareholder or the management of either, that creates a conflict of interest such as to impair his judgment. Since all cases when member of the collegial body is likely to become dependent are impossible to list, moreover, relationships and circumstances associated with the determination of independence may vary amongst companies and the best practices of solving this problem are yet to evolve in the course of time, assessment of independence of a member of the collegial body should be based on the contents of the | No | The company has not defined the independence criteria of a member of the Management Board. However, there are two members of the Management Board that meet the independence criteria listed in this finding. |

⁵ It is notable that in some companies all members of the collegial body may, due to a very small number of minority shareholders, be elected by the votes of the majority shareholder or a few major shareholders. But even a member of the collegial body elected by the majority shareholders may be considered independent if he/she meets the independence criteria set out in the Code.

relationship and circumstances rather than their form. The key criteria for identifying whether a member of the collegial body can be considered to be independent are the following:

- 1) He/she is not an executive director or member of the board (if a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the supervisory board) of the company or any associated company and has not been such during the last five years;
- 2) He/she is not an employee of the company or some any company and has not been such during the last three years, except for cases when a member of the collegial body does not belong to the senior management and was elected to the collegial body as a representative of the employees;
- 3) He/she is not receiving or has been not receiving significant additional remuneration from the company or associated company other than remuneration for the office in the collegial body. Such additional remuneration includes participation in share options or some other performance based pay systems; it does not include compensation payments for the previous office in the company (provided that such payment is no way related with later position) as per pension plans (inclusive of deferred compensations);
- 4) He/she is not a controlling shareholder or representative of such shareholder (control as defined in the Council Directive 83/349/EEC Article 1 Part 1);
- 5) He/she does not have and did not have any material business relations with the company or associated company within the past year directly or as a partner, shareholder, director or superior employee of the subject having such relationship. A subject is considered to have business relations when it is a major supplier or service provider (inclusive of financial, legal, counselling and consulting services), major client or organization receiving significant payments from the company or its group;
- 6) He/she is not and has not been, during the last three years, partner or employee of the current or former external audit company of the company or associated company;
- 7) He/she is not an executive director or member of the board in some other company where executive director of the company or member of the board (if a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the supervisory board) is non-executive director or member of the supervisory board, he/she may not also have any other material relationships with executive directors of the company that arise from their participation in activities of other companies or bodies;
- 8) He/she has not been in the position of a member of the collegial body for over than 12 years;
- 9) He/she is not a close relative to an

| executive director or member of the board (if a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting is the supervisory board) or to any person listed in above items 1 to 8. Close relative is considered to be a spouse (common-law spouse), children and parents. 3.8. The determination of what constitutes independence is fundamentally an issue for the collegial body itself to determine. The collegial body may decide that, despite a particular member meets all the criteria of independence laid down in this Code, he cannot be considered independent due to special personal or company-related circumstances. | | |
| 3.9. Necessary information on conclusions the collegial body has come to in its determination of whether a particular member of the body should be considered to be independent should be disclosed. When a person is nominated to become a member of the collegial body, the company should disclose whether it considers the person to be independent. When a particular member of the collegial body does not meet one or more criteria of independence set out in this Code, the company should disclose its reasons for nevertheless considering the member to be independent. In addition, the company should annually disclose which members of the collegial body it considers to be independent. | Not applicable | The company has not implemented the practice of evaluation and disclosure of independence criteria of a member of the Management Board. |
| 3.10. When one or more criteria of independence set out in this Code has not been met throughout the year, the company should disclose its reasons for considering a particular member of the collegial body to be independent. To ensure accuracy of the information disclosed in relation with the independence of the members of the collegial body, the company should require independent members to have their independence periodically re-confirmed. | No | The company has not implemented the practice of evaluation and disclosure of independence criteria of a member of the Management Board. |
| 3.11. In order to remunerate members of a collegial body for their work and participation in the meetings of the collegial body, they may be remunerated from the company's funds⁶. The general shareholders' meeting should approve the amount of such remuneration. | Yes | Members of the Management Board are paid tantjems for their service on the Management Board. |
| Principle IV: The duties and liabilities of a collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting The corporate governance framework should ensure proper and effective functioning of the collegial body elected by the general shareholders' meeting, and the powers granted to the collegial body should ensure effective monitoring⁷ of the company's management bodies and protection of interests of all the company's shareholders. | | |
| 4.1. The collegial body elected by the general | Yes | The Management Board ensures the integrity and transparency |

⁶ It is notable that currently it is not yet completely clear, in what form members of the supervisory board or the board may be remunerated for their work in these bodies. The Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania (Official Gazette, 2003, No 123-5574) provides that members of the supervisory board or the board may be remunerated for their work in the supervisory board or the board by payment of annual bonuses (tantjems) in the manner prescribed by Article 59 of this Law, i.e. from the company's profit. The current wording, contrary to the wording effective before 1 January 2004, eliminates the exclusive requirement that annual bonuses (tantjems) should be the only form of the company's compensation to members of the supervisory board or the board. So it seems that the Law contains no prohibition to remunerate members of the supervisory board or the board for their work in other forms, besides bonuses, although this possibility is not expressly stated either.

| shareholders' meeting (hereinafter in this Principle referred to as the 'collegial body') should ensure integrity and transparency of the company's financial statements and the control system. The collegial body should issue recommendations to the company's management bodies and monitor and control the company's management performance.⁸ | | of the company's financial statements and the control system, evaluates the project of company's annual financial statements and the project of profit (loss) distribution and submits them to the general shareholders' meeting. The Board also submits recommendations and suggestions to the head of administration. |
| 4.2. Members of the collegial body should act in good faith, with care and responsibility for the benefit and in the interests of the company and its shareholders with due regard to the interests of employees and public welfare. Independent members of the collegial body should (a) under all circumstances maintain independence of their analysis, decision-making and actions (b) do not seek and accept any unjustified privileges that might compromise their independence, and (c) clearly express their objections should a member consider that decision of the collegial body is against the interests of the company. Should a collegial body have passed decisions independent member has serious doubts about, the member should make adequate conclusions. Should an independent member resign from his office, he should explain the reasons in a letter addressed to the collegial body or audit committee and, if necessary, respective company-not-pertaining body (institution). | Yes | Basing on company's data, the members of the Management Board act in good will with regard to the company, follow the interests of the company, not the interests of their own or of the third parties, act in conformity with the principles of fairness and prudence, under an obligation of confidentiality and with due responsibility, thus they aim at maintaining the independence of decision-making. |
| 4.3. Each member should devote sufficient time and attention to perform his duties as a member of the collegial body. Each member of the collegial body should limit other professional obligations of his (in particular any directorships held in other companies) in such a manner they do not interfere with proper performance of duties of a member of the collegial body. In the event a member of the collegial body should be present in less than a half⁹ of the meetings of the collegial body throughout the financial year of the company, shareholders of the company should be notified. | Yes | In the year 2015 the members of the Management Board held the meetings of the Management Board (each meeting had the proper quorum) and each member devoted sufficient time to perform her/his duties as a member of the Management Board. |
| 4.4. Where decisions of a collegial body may have a different effect on the company's shareholders, the collegial body should treat all shareholders impartially and fairly. It should ensure that shareholders are properly informed on the company's affairs, strategies, risk management and resolution of conflicts of interest. The company should have a clearly established role of members of the collegial body when communicating with and committing to shareholders. | Yes | The management bodies of the company, prior to making material decisions, discuss their impact on shareholders and seeking to ensure that all shareholders are properly informed on the company's affairs, strategies, risk management, announce the main information about the company's activity in the periodical reports. |
| 4.5. It is recommended that transactions (except insignificant ones due to their low value or concluded when carrying out routine operations in the company under usual conditions), concluded | Yes | The management bodies of the company enter into transactions following the legislation and approved Articles of Association, for the attainment of benefit and welfare to the company. |

⁹ It is notable that companies can make this requirement more stringent and provide that shareholders should be informed about failure to participate at the meetings of the collegial body if, for instance, a member of the collegial body participated at less than 2/3 or 3/4 of the meetings. Such measures, which ensure active participation in the meetings of the collegial body, are encouraged and will constitute an example of more suitable corporate governance.

| between the company and its shareholders, members of the supervisory or managing bodies or other natural or legal persons that exert or may exert influence on the company's management should be subject to approval of the collegial body. The decision concerning approval of such transactions should be deemed adopted only provided the majority of the independent members of the collegial body voted for such a decision. | | |
| 4.6. The collegial body should be independent in passing decisions that are significant for the company's operations and strategy. Taken separately, the collegial body should be independent of the company's management bodies¹⁰. Members of the collegial body should act and pass decisions without an outside influence from the persons who have elected it. Companies should ensure that the collegial body and its committees are provided with sufficient administrative and financial resources to discharge their duties, including the right to obtain, in particular from employees of the company, all the necessary information or to seek independent legal, accounting or any other advice on issues pertaining to the competence of the collegial body and its committees. When using the services of a consultant with a view to obtaining information on market standards for remuneration systems, the remuneration committee should ensure that the consultant concerned does not at the same time advise the human resources department, executive directors or collegial management organs of the company concerned. | Yes | In all senses the Management Board makes decisions on the interest of the company. The Management Board of the company and its committees are provided with entire resources that are necessary to exercise their functions. Under the necessity, the employees of the company take part in the meetings of the Management Board and committees and present all the necessary information that is relevant to the issues under discussion. Remuneration committee ensures that consultants and specialists, who provides information on market standards for remuneration systems, do not at the same time advise the human resources departments of the company, members of executive and management bodies on the issues related with company. |
| 4.7. Activities of the collegial body should be organised in a manner that independent members of the collegial body could have major influence in relevant areas where chances of occurrence of conflicts of interest are very high. Such areas to be considered as highly relevant are issues of nomination of company's directors, determination of directors' remuneration and control and assessment of company's audit. Therefore when the mentioned issues are attributable to the competence of the collegial body, it is recommended that the collegial body should establish nomination, remuneration, and audit committees¹¹. Companies should ensure that the functions attributable to the nomination, remuneration, and audit committees are carried out. However they may decide to merge these functions and set up less than three committees. In such case a company should explain in detail reasons behind the selection of alternative approach and how the selected approach complies with the objectives set forth for the three different committees. Should the collegial body of the company comprise small number of members, the functions assigned to the three committees may be performed by the collegial body itself, provided that it meets composition | Yes | Vilkyškių Pieninė AB has 2 committees: Nomination and Remuneration Committee and Audit Committee. The Management Board forms the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. General Meeting of Shareholders approves the members and the regulations of activity of the Audit committee. |

¹¹ The Law of the Republic of Lithuania on Audit (Official Gazette, 2008, No 82-53233) determines that an Audit Committee shall be formed in each public interest entity (including, but not limited to public companies whose securities are traded in the regulated market of the Republic of Lithuania and/or any other member state).

| requirements advocated for the committees and that adequate information is provided in this respect. In such case provisions of this Code relating to the committees of the collegial body (in particular with respect to their role, operation, and transparency) should apply, where relevant, to the collegial body as a whole. | | |
| 4.8. The key objective of the committees is to increase efficiency of the activities of the collegial body by ensuring that decisions are based on due consideration, and to help organize its work with a view to ensuring that the decisions it takes are free of material conflicts of interest. Committees should exercise independent judgement and integrity when exercising its functions as well as present the collegial body with recommendations concerning the decisions of the collegial body. Nevertheless the final decision shall be adopted by the collegial body. The recommendation on creation of committees is not intended, in principle, to constrict the competence of the collegial body or to remove the matters considered from the purview of the collegial body itself, which remains fully responsible for the decisions taken in its field of competence. | Yes | The key objective of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to provide the bodies of the company and persons, who nominate or elect members of the management bodies and executive officers of the company, with recommendations and to ensure the transparent policy, principles and order of the settlement of remuneration to members of the management bodies and executive officers. The Committee provides the Management Board with help while supervising (i) election and nomination of the chief executive office and other executive officers, (ii) the settlement of remuneration to the members of the Management Board, to the chief executive office and to other executive officers. Audit Committee exercises independent judgement and integrity when exercising its functions. Its key objective is to observe the preparation process of financial statements, to supervise performance of audit of financial accountability of the company, to supervise how Audit Company keeps to the principles of independency and objectivity, and to supervise the effectiveness of internal control and risk management systems. The Committee provides the Management Board of the company with help while supervising (i) disclosure quality and consistency of financial, accounting and other relevant documents, (ii) the qualification of an independent auditor, his/her independency and proper performance of his/her office, (iii) the implementation of internal control. |
| 4.9. Committees established by the collegial body should normally be composed of at least three members. In companies with small number of members of the collegial body, they could exceptionally be composed of two members. Majority of the members of each committee should be constituted from independent members of the collegial body. In cases when the company chooses not to set up a supervisory board, remuneration and audit committees should be entirely comprised of non-executive directors. Chairmanship and membership of the committees should be decided with due regard to the need to ensure that committee membership is refreshed and that undue reliance is not placed on particular individuals. | Yes | Each committee of the company is composed of 3 members. |
| 4.10. Authority of each of the committees should be determined by the collegial body. Committees should perform their duties in line with authority delegated to them and inform the collegial body on their activities and performance on regular basis. Authority of every committee stipulating the role and rights and duties of the committee should be made public at least once a year (as part of the information disclosed by the company annually on its corporate governance structures and practices). Companies should also make public annually a statement by existing committees on their composition, number of meetings and attendance over the year, and their main activities. | 4.14. Audit Committee. 4.14.1. Key functions of the audit committee should be the following: 1) Observe the integrity of the financial information provided by the company, in particular by reviewing the relevance and consistency of the accounting methods used by the company and its group (including the criteria for the consolidation of the accounts of companies in the group); 2) At least once a year review the systems of internal control and risk management to ensure that the key risks (inclusive of the risks in relation with compliance with existing laws and regulations) are properly identified, managed and reflected in the information provided; 3) Ensure the efficiency of the internal audit function, among other things, by making recommendations on the selection, appointment, reappointment and removal of the head of the internal audit department and on the budget of the department, and by monitoring the responsiveness of the management to its findings and recommendations. Should there be no internal audit authority in the company, the need for one should be reviewed at least annually; 4) Make recommendations to the collegial body related with selection, appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditor (to be done by the general shareholders' meeting) and with the terms and conditions of his engagement. The committee should investigate situations that lead to a resignation of the audit company or auditor and make recommendations on required actions in such situations; 5) Monitor independence and impartiality of the external auditor, in particular by reviewing the audit company's compliance with applicable guidance relating to the rotation of audit partners, the level of fees paid by the company, and similar issues. In order to prevent occurrence of material conflicts of interest, the committee, based on the auditor's disclosed inter alia data on all remunerations paid by the company to the auditor and network, should at all times monitor nature and extent of the non-audit services. Having regard to the principals and guidelines established in the 16 May 2002 Commission Recommendation 2002/590/EC, the committee should determine and apply a formal policy establishing types of non-audit services that are (a) excluded, (b) permissible only after review by the committee, and (c) permissible without referral to the committee; 6) Review efficiency of the external audit process and responsiveness of management to recommendations made in the external auditor's management letter. 4.14.2. All members of the committee should be furnished with complete information on particulars of accounting, financial and other operations of the company. The audit committee should decide whether participation of the chairman of the collegial body, chief executive officer of the company, chief financial officer (or superior employees in charge of finances, treasury and accounting), or internal and external auditors in the meetings of the committee is required (if required, when). The committee should be entitled, when needed, to meet with any relevant person without executive directors and members of the management bodies present. 4.14.4. Internal and external auditors should be secured with not only effective working relationship with management, but also with free access to the collegial body. For this purpose the audit committee should act as the principal contact person for the internal and external auditors. 4.14.5. The audit committee should be informed of the internal auditor's work program, and should be furnished with internal audit's reports or periodic summaries. The audit committee should also be informed of the work program of the external auditor and should be furnished with report disclosing all relationships between the independent auditor and the company and its group. The committee should be timely furnished information on all issues arising from the audit. 4.14.6. The audit committee should examine whether the company is following applicable provisions regarding the possibility for employees to report alleged significant irregularities in the company, by way of complaints or through anonymous submissions (normally to an independent member of the collegial body), and should ensure that there is a procedure established for proportionate and independent investigation of these issues and for appropriate follow-up action. 4.14.7. The audit committee should report on its activities to the collegial body at least once in every six months, at the time the yearly and half-yearly statements are approved. | | |
| 4.15. Every year the collegial body should conduct the assessment of its activities. The assessment should include evaluation of collegial body's structure, work organization and ability to act as a group, evaluation of each of the collegial body member's and committee's competence and work efficiency and assessment whether the collegial body has achieved its objectives. The collegial body should, at least once a year, make public (as part of the information the company annually discloses on its management structures and practices) respective information on its internal organization and working procedures, and specify what material changes were made as a result of the assessment of the collegial body of its own activities. | No | The company has no practice of assessment of activities of the Management Board and disclosure of information on its activity. |
| Principle V: The working procedure of the company's collegial bodies The working procedure of supervisory and management bodies established in the company should ensure efficient operation of these bodies and decision-making and encourage active co-operation between the company's bodies. | | |
| 5.1. The company's supervisory and management bodies (hereinafter in this Principle the concept | Yes | The Board meetings are organised once per month. |

|--|----------------|---|
| 'collegial bodies' covers both the collegial bodies of supervision and the collegial bodies of management) should be chaired by chairpersons of these bodies. The chairperson of a collegial body is responsible for proper convocation of the collegial body meetings. The chairperson should ensure that information about the meeting being convened and its agenda are communicated to all members of the body. The chairperson of a collegial body should ensure appropriate conducting of the meetings of the collegial body. The chairperson should ensure order and working atmosphere during the meeting. | | |
| 5.2. It is recommended that meetings of the company's collegial bodies should be carried out according to the schedule approved in advance at certain intervals of time. Each company is free to decide how often to convene meetings of the collegial bodies, but it is recommended that these meetings should be convened at such intervals, which would guarantee an interrupted resolution of the essential corporate governance issues. Meetings of the company's supervisory board should be convened at least once in a quarter, and the company's board should meet at least once a month¹². | Yes | The chairperson of the Management Board heads up the meetings of the Management Board. The employee of the company organizes the work of the Management Board by order of the chairperson of the Management Board. Meetings of the Management Board are organised once per month. |
| 5.3. Members of a collegial body should be notified about the meeting being convened in advance in order to allow sufficient time for proper preparation for the issues on the agenda of the meeting and to ensure fruitful discussion and adoption of appropriate decisions. Alongside with the notice about the meeting being convened, all the documents relevant to the issues on the agenda of the meeting should be submitted to the members of the collegial body. The agenda of the meeting should not be changed or supplemented during the meeting, unless all members of the collegial body are present or certain issues of great importance to the company require immediate resolution. | Yes | Each member of the management body may take the cognizance of the issues on the agenda of the meeting before the day of the meeting. Issues under discussion (thesis of reports, draft resolutions, etc.) are presented in advance alongside with the notice about the meeting being convened. Usually the announced agenda of the meeting is not changed unless it is decided otherwise during the meeting, when all members of the Management Board are present, and if the material for the supplemented issue is sufficient in order to make the decision on the issue that has not been announced on the agenda. Issues of agenda of the meetings and draft resolutions are prepared and presented by the chief executive office of the company, by the members of the Management Board, or by special groups, which are formed on the decision of the Management Board and which may include specialists who are not the employees of the company. |
| 5.4. In order to co-ordinate operation of the company's collegial bodies and ensure effective decision-making process, chairpersons of the company's collegial bodies of supervision and management should closely co-operate by co-ordinating dates of the meetings, their agendas and resolving other issues of corporate governance. Members of the company's board should be free to attend meetings of the company's supervisory board, especially where issues concerning removal of the board members, their liability or remuneration are discussed. | Not applicable | The company cannot follow Recommendation 5.4 because the company does not establish any collegial supervisory bodies. |

| 6.1. It is recommended that the company's capital should consist only of the shares that grant the same rights to voting, ownership, dividend and other rights to all their holders. | Yes | The capital of the company consists of ordinary registered shares that grant the same personal property and not-property right to all holders of company's shares. |
| 6.2. It is recommended that investors should have access to the information concerning the rights attached to the shares of the new issue or those issued earlier in advance, i.e. before they purchase shares. | Yes | The Articles of Association, which defines the rights attached to the shares for the investors, are publicly announced on the website of the company. |
| 6.3. Transactions that are important to the company and its shareholders, such as transfer, investment, and pledge of the company's assets or any other type of encumbrance should be subject to approval of the general shareholders' meeting. ¹³ All shareholders should be furnished with equal opportunity to familiarize with and participate in the decision-making process when significant corporate issues, including approval of transactions referred to above, are discussed. | Yes | Important transactions are approved following the order set in the Articles of Association. |
| 6.4. Procedures of convening and conducting a general shareholders' meeting should ensure equal opportunities for the shareholders to effectively participate at the meetings and should not prejudice the rights and interests of the shareholders. The venue, date, and time of the shareholders' meeting should not hinder wide attendance of the shareholders. | Yes | The Articles of Association provide that all persons, who are shareholders of the company on the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting, shall have the right to attend and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting or may authorise other persons to vote for them as proxies or may transfer their right to vote to other persons with whom an agreement on the transfer of the voting right has been concluded. Members of the Management Board, chief executive officer of the company and the auditor who prepared the auditor's opinion and audit report may attend and speak at the General Meeting. A shareholder, who has the right to vote and who is familiar with the agenda, may give written notice to the General Shareholders' Meeting of her/his will "for" or "against" on every single decision. These notices are included into the quorum of the meeting and into the voting results. |
| 6.5. If is possible, in order to ensure shareholders living abroad the right to access to the information, it is recommended that documents on the course of the general shareholders' meeting should be placed on the publicly accessible website of the company not only in Lithuanian language, but in English and /or other foreign languages in advance. It is recommended that the minutes of the general shareholders' meeting after signing them and/or adopted resolutions should be also placed on the publicly accessible website of the company. Seeking to ensure the right of foreigners to familiarize with the information, whenever feasible, documents | Yes | No late that 21 day before the General Shareholders' Meeting, shareholders are provided with an opportunity to familiarize with documentation of the Company related to the agenda of the meeting, including draft decisions and application submitted to the Management Board by the initiator of the General Shareholders' Meeting. If the shareholder requests in writing, chief executive office of the Company no later than 3 days from the receipt of a written request hands in all draft decisions of the meeting to the shareholder against the signature and sends by registered mail. The draft decisions should be referred to whose initiative they are involved. If the initiator of the draft decision submitted the explanations of the draft decision, these are attached to the draft decision. |

¹³ The Law on Companies of the Republic of Lithuania (Official Gazette, 2003, No 123-5574) no longer assigns resolutions concerning the investment, transfer, lease, mortgage or acquisition of the long-terms assets accounting for more than 1/20 of the company's authorised capital to the competence of the general shareholders' meeting. However, transactions that are important and material for the company's activity should be considered and approved by the general shareholders' meeting. The Law on Companies contains no prohibition to this effect either. Yet, in order not to encumber the company's activity and escape an unreasonably frequent consideration of transactions at the meetings, companies are free to establish their own criteria of material transactions, which are subject to the approval of the meeting. While establishing these criteria of material transactions, companies may follow the criteria set out in items 3, 4, 5 and 6 of paragraph 4 of Article 34 of the Law on Companies or derogate from them in view of the specific nature of their operation and their attempt to ensure uninterrupted, efficient functioning of the company.

Documents referred to in this recommendation may be published on the publicly accessible website of the company to the extent that publishing of these documents is not detrimental to the company or the company's commercial secrets are not revealed. | | No later than 21 day before the Meeting the following documents are placed on the website of the company and NASDAQ Vilnius in Lithuanian and English languages: 1. Draft decisions concerning each issue of the agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting 2. Audited annual financial statements and auditor's report 3. Annual Report |
| 6.6. Shareholders should be furnished with the opportunity to vote in the general shareholders' meeting in person and in absentia. Shareholders should not be prevented from voting in writing in advance by completing the general voting ballot. | Yes | A shareholder, who has the right to vote and who is familiar with the agenda, may give written notice to the General Shareholders' Meeting of her/his will "for" or "against" on every single decision. |
| 6.7. With a view to increasing the shareholders' opportunities to participate effectively at shareholders' meetings, the companies are recommended to expand use of modern technologies by allowing the shareholders to participate and vote in general meetings via electronic means of communication. In such cases security of transmitted information and a possibility to identify the identity of the participating and voting person should be guaranteed. Moreover, companies could furnish its shareholders, especially shareholders living abroad, with the opportunity to watch shareholder meetings by means of modern technologies. | No | The Company has not applied the means of modern technologies. |
| Principle VII: The avoidance of conflicts of interest and their disclosure The corporate governance framework should encourage members of the corporate bodies to avoid conflicts of interest and assure transparent and effective mechanism of disclosure of conflicts of interest regarding members of the corporate bodies. | | |
| 7.1. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body should avoid a situation, in which his/her personal interests are in conflict or may be in conflict with the company's interests. In case such a situation did occur, a member of the company's supervisory and management body should, within reasonable time, inform other members of the same collegial body or the company's body that has elected him/her, or to the company's shareholders about a situation of a conflict of interest, indicate the nature of the conflict and value, where possible. | Yes | The members of the Management Board avoid situations of a conflict of personal and company's interests. |
| 7.2. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body may not mix the company's assets, the use of which has not been mutually agreed upon, with his/her personal assets or use them or the information which he/she learns by virtue of his/her position as a member of a corporate body for his/her personal benefit or for the benefit of any third person without a prior agreement of the general shareholders' meeting or any other corporate body authorised by the meeting. | Yes | The members of the Management Board do not mix the company's assets with his/her personal assets. |
| 7.3. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body may conclude a transaction with the company, a member of a corporate body of which he/she is. | 7.4. Any member of the company's supervisory and management body should abstain from voting when decisions concerning transactions or other issues of personal or business interest are voted on. | Yes | The members of the Management Board abstain from voting when decisions concerning transactions or other issues of personal or business interest are voted on. |
| Principle VIII: Company's remuneration policy | | |
| Remuneration policy and procedure for approval, revision and disclosure of directors' remuneration established in the company should prevent potential conflicts of interest and abuse in determining remuneration of directors, in addition it should ensure publicity and transparency both of company's remuneration policy and remuneration of directors. | | |
| 8.1. A company should make a public statement of the company's remuneration policy (hereinafter the remuneration statement) which should be clear and easily understandable. This remuneration statement should be published as a part of the company's annual statement as well as posted on the company's website. | No | The company does not follow the recommendations due to public statement of the company's remuneration policy. The company follows the approved policy in accordance with which the system of remuneration and premiums as well as other payments, which are related with labour relations, is not publicly announced, and the company attributes such information to information of commercially confidential nature. |
| 8.2. Remuneration statement should mainly focus on directors' remuneration policy for the following year and, if appropriate, the subsequent years. The statement should contain a summary of the implementation of the remuneration policy in the previous financial year. Special attention should be given to any significant changes in company's remuneration policy as compared to the previous financial year. | No | The company does not follow the recommendations due to public statement of the company's remuneration policy. The company follows the approved policy in accordance with which the system of remuneration and premiums as well as other payments, which are related with labour relations, is not publicly announced, and the company attributes such information to information of commercially confidential nature. |
